Registration—
Early Registration Begins April 6, 2009

All students who are enrolled on the Bloomington campus for Spring 2009 are scheduled to register for Fall 2009 during Early Registration (April 6-May 1). Note: A late registration fee will be assessed beginning on August 28.

Note also: General Registration Information section and Drop/Add information.

Registration using OneStart Student Center

Use OneStart Student Center from locations where you have online access. Connect to OneStart Student Center from computers on campus, in your living space or in the Registration Center, Franklin Hall 101. (The Registration Center is open Monday through Friday, April 6-May 1, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.)

Registration Procedure

Before registering:
   • Check registration appointment date and time.
   • Check for holds on your registration [academic checklists, financial encumbrances and immunization record noncompliance entries]. Obtain a release for each entry from the office listed. The registration system will prevent you from enrolling until corrective action is taken on each entry.
   • Review your addresses. Update entries as necessary.
2. Follow the advising procedure established by your school or department.
3. Review course availability online through OneStart or at www.registrar.indiana.edu. Also review online course descriptions, contact prospective instructors and review course materials for desired courses.
4. Consult the final examination schedule in this publication.
5. Request any required class permissions from the department offering the desired class.

Register using OneStart Student Center

See http://registrar.indiana.edu/reginstruction.shtml for detailed registration and drop/add instructions.

Drop/Add using OneStart Student Center

See Drop/Add and Late Drop/Add procedures in this publication (pages 12-14).

The Registration Agreement

When you register, the University reserves specific class spaces for you and commits resources to provide the instruction you have selected. On your part, you assume the responsibility for paying those course fees or for notifying the University if you decide not to attend.

The availability of courses is subject to change. A section may be cancelled due to low enrollment or departmental staffing considerations. The department cancelling a class will notify registered students and help them make alternate arrangements, if necessary. Registered students also will be notified if the meeting time and/or location of a course has changed since the student registered.

Your registration will not automatically be cancelled for nonpayment of fees. You must either pay your fees or notify us if you do not intend to return to the Bloomington campus. By cancelling your registration by the fee payment deadline, your class spaces will be released in time to be available to other students.

If you decide to cancel your registration, write to the Office of the Registrar, Franklin Hall 100.

Fee Payment

Indiana University provides account statements electronically through QuikPAY®. The Fall 2009 account statement will be generated in July and an e-mail notification will be sent to your IU e-mail account when the bill is available on the web for viewing and printing. Students may create access for parents and other third parties through QuikPAY which will also allow those users to view the bill on the web. Connect to OneStart (http://onestart.iu.edu) to access your statement. Please refer to the Office of the Bursar website at http://bursar.indiana.edu for additional details.

The July account statement will show the course fees for Fall 2009, the charges for any optional selections requested, and any other debts owed to the University. Payment will be due on August 10, 2009.

Payment

To avoid a late payment penalty, the student’s payment must be received in the Office of the Bursar by August 10, 2009.

Refer to the electronic payment instructions available with your account statement for specific information on payment options.

Late Payment Fee

A late payment fee will be assessed to the accounts of all students whose payments are not received in the Office of the Bursar by August 10, 2009. A late payment fee will be assessed in each month your account remains unpaid. Refer to page 25 for additional information.

Prerequisites

Many course sections have mandatory prerequisites which are listed in the school bulletins or in the online Schedule of Classes. Each student is responsible for meeting the published prerequisites for each course requested. After each enrollment period, schools and departments may review the completion of prerequisites of registered students. The academic units have the authority to administratively drop a student from a course for which the student has not fulfilled the published prerequisites.
If you have not received an e-mail notification of bill availability by July 20, 2009, please access your online statement immediately through OneStart. Failure to receive the bill notification will not be accepted as a reason for missing the payment deadline of August 10, 2009.

Important Note about Withdrawal
Failure to pay does not withdraw you from all classes. Students who wish to cancel their Bloomington campus enrollment with the Office of the Registrar for a future term can do so up through the first week of classes via OneStart through the Student Center, Register & Drop/Add. Should you decide not to attend the Bloomington campus, you may also notify the Office of the Registrar, in writing, by August 10, 2009. There is no automatic cancellation of your enrollment for nonpayment. If you do not request that your registration be cancelled, you risk receiving grades of F in your courses. You will also be responsible for all course fees, plus any applicable late fees, through the time you complete a total withdrawal. (See Fee Refund Policy in the General Financial Information section.)

Sponsored Students
For those sponsored students for whom the Office of the Bursar has on file an authorization covering Fall 2009, credits will be applied in the amount to be billed to the sponsor. The account statement available to the student in July will reflect the amount which the student is to pay by August 10, 2009.

Financial Aid Recipients
The student’s electronic account statement will show the amount of anticipated financial aid awarded fall term, provided:

1. the student’s account has not been encumbered by the Student Loan Administration; and
2. the student has met the enrollment and financial eligibility requirements for the financial aid awarded.

The account statement available to the student will reflect the total to be paid by the student by the due date.

Actual financial aid awards will be credited to the student’s account 10 days prior to the first day of classes. If, for any reason, eligibility requirements are not met within 30 days after that date, the student will be responsible for payment and is subject to late payment fees and other penalties.

Fee Payment for Registration and Drop/Add
An account statement will be generated and made available to the student via the web according to the billing cycle noted.

Late Payment Fee
A late payment fee will be assessed to the accounts of all students whose payments are not received in the Office of the Bursar by the due date stated on the account statement. Thereafter, should any portion of the account remain unpaid, a late fee will continue to be assessed monthly. Refer to page 25 for additional information.

If you have not received an e-mail notification of bill availability by five days following the expected notification date noted on the billing cycle below, please access your online statement immediately through OneStart [http://onestart.iu.edu]. Failure to receive the bill notification will not be accepted as a reason for missing any payment deadline.

Important Note About Withdrawal
Failure to pay does not withdraw you from all classes. Should you decide not to attend the Bloomington campus, you must follow the procedures for withdrawal from all courses given in the Enrollment Bulletin. There is no automatic cancellation of your enrollment for nonpayment. If you do not withdraw properly, you risk receiving grades of F in your courses. You will also be responsible for all course fees, plus any applicable late fees, through the time you complete a total withdrawal. (See Fee Refund Policy in the General Financial Information section.)

Financial Aid Recipients
The student’s account statement will show the amount of anticipated financial aid awarded fall term, provided:

1. the student’s account has not been encumbered by the Student Loan Administration; and
2. the student has met the enrollment and financial eligibility requirements for the financial aid awarded.

The account statement available to the student will reflect the total to be paid by the student by the due date.

If, for any reason, eligibility requirements are not met within 30 days after that date, the student will be responsible for payment and is subject to late payment fees and other penalties.

Disbursement of Refunds
Financial aid awards will be credited to students’ accounts and applied to their financial obligations to Indiana University. Any remaining amount will be refunded to the student via direct deposit to the student’s chosen financial institution. Bursar refund checks, for those not participating in the direct deposit program, will be mailed to the student’s housing or local address as noted on OneStart.
New Student Registration—
August 24-27, 2009

All students who are enrolling on the Bloomington campus for the first time are eligible to register during New Student Registration. This includes all new undergraduate students, new graduate students, and inter-campus transfer students.

In addition, all returning students who were not enrolled on the Bloomington campus during Spring 2009 are eligible to register at this time.

Registration using OneStart Student Center

Use OneStart Student Center from locations where you have online access. Connect to OneStart Student Center from computers on campus, in your living space or in the Registration Center, Franklin Hall 101. (The Registration Center is open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.)

Registration Procedure

Refer to Registration Procedure for Registration (page 6), except for fee payment instructions which are outlined below. See http://registrar.indiana.edu/reginstruction.shtml for detailed registration and drop/add instructions.

Fee Payment

An account statement will show the fees associated with this registration, as well as any other outstanding charges on the student’s account. The account statement will be generated and made available to the student via the web. Payment will be due on October 10, 2009.

Late Payment Fee

A late payment fee will be assessed to the accounts of all students whose payments are not received in the Office of the Bursar by October 10, 2009. Thereafter, should any portion of the account remain unpaid, a late fee will continue to be assessed monthly. Refer to page 25 for additional information.

If you have not received an e-mail notification of bill availability by September 21, 2009, please access your online statement immediately through OneStart (http://onestart.iu.edu). Failure to receive the bill notification will not be accepted as a reason for missing the payment deadline of October 10, 2009.

Late Registration—
August 28-September 4, 2009

NOTE: A late registration fee is assessed.

Registration using OneStart Student Center
Use OneStart Student Center from locations where you have online access. Connect to OneStart Student Center from computers on campus, in your living space or in the Registration Center, Franklin Hall 101. [The Registration Center is open 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.]

Registration Procedure
Refer to Registration Procedure for Registration (page 6), except for fee payment instructions and late fee information which are outlined below. See http://registrar.indiana.edu/reginstruction.shtml for detailed registration and drop/add instructions.

Fee Payment
Late registrants will be assessed a late registration fee.

An account statement will show the fees associated with this enrollment, as well as any other outstanding charges on the student's account. The account statement will be generated and made available to the student via the web. Payment will be due on October 10, 2009.

Late Payment Fee
A late payment fee will be assessed to the accounts of all students whose payments are not received in the Office of the Bursar by October 10, 2009. Thereafter, should any portion of the account remain unpaid, a late fee will continue to be assessed monthly. Refer to page 25 for additional information.

Late Registration—
Beginning September 8, 2009

Note: A late registration fee is assessed. In addition, all classes requested must have prior written departmental authorization.

Registration Procedure
Before reporting to Office of the Registrar:
1. Obtain a registration form from your school (or major department for students in the University Graduate School).
2. Connect to OneStart (http://onestart.iu.edu). Check for registration holds [academic checklists, financial encumbrances and immunization record noncompliance entries]. Obtain a release for each entry from the office listed.
3. Also at OneStart, review your addresses. Update entries as necessary.
4. Follow the advising procedure established by your school or department.
5. Record your preferred and alternate class selections on your program planning sheet (reverse side of registration form).
6. Consult the final examination schedule in this publication.
7. Obtain authorization signatures on the program planning sheet for each desired credit section from the department offering the class. Class requests will not be processed without the proper signatures.

At the Office of the Registrar:
8. Present your registration form to a service representative who will process your enrollment.
   The online registration system is not available.
9. Refer to fee payment instructions below.

Class Schedule
Students have the responsibility of reviewing their class schedule form to confirm that all desired sections have been requested and scheduled.

Fee Payment
Late registrants will be assessed a late registration fee.

An account statement will show the fees associated with this enrollment, as well as any other outstanding charges on the student’s account. The account statement will be generated and made available to the student via the web. Payment will be due on October 10, 2009.

Late Payment Fee
A late payment fee will be assessed to the accounts of all students whose payments are not received in the Office of the Bursar by October 10, 2009. Thereafter, should any portion of the account remain unpaid, a late fee will continue to be assessed monthly. Refer to page 25 for additional information.

Important Note about Withdrawal
Failure to pay does not withdraw you from all classes. Should you decide not to attend the Bloomington campus, you must follow the procedures for withdrawal from all courses given in the Enrollment Bulletin. There is no automatic cancellation of your enrollment for nonpayment. If you do not withdraw properly, you risk receiving grades of F in your courses. You will also be responsible for all course fees, plus any applicable late fees, through the time you complete a total withdrawal. (See Fee Refund Policy in the General Financial Information section.)
Auditors

The course department will determine the audit policy for each class. Please be aware that, in some cases, permission to audit a class will not be granted (see notes below).

Any student enrolling in all classes as an auditor (i.e. not taking any classes for credit) must obtain a registration form from the Office of the Registrar—Franklin Hall 101, on or after the first day of classes. The student must also obtain a signed audit authorization memo from each course department before reporting to the registration center during the first week of classes. NOTE: After the first week of classes, a late registration fee will be assessed.

Any student enrolling in one or more classes for credit and wishing to enroll as an auditor in additional classes must obtain a signed audit authorization memo from the course department. This authorization must be received in the Office of the Registrar before registration will be processed.

NOTE: Classes taken for no credit [audit] are not counted as completed academic credit but are reflected on the student’s grade report and the official permanent academic record with a grade of NC [no credit]. Audit classes are also excluded from consideration for official IU certification purposes.

NOTE: Kelley School of Business undergraduate classes are not available for audit enrollment.

Independent Study Program/Distance Education

With permission from their dean, IU degree-seeking students have the option of taking distance education classes through the Independent Study Program. For further information about available classes, students may consult the Independent Study University Courses catalog, available in Owen Hall 005, by calling 855-2292, or by visiting the School of Continuing Studies Web site at http://scs.indiana.edu.

Enrollment Procedure

Students should obtain an enrollment form from the School of Continuing Studies, Office of Learner Services, Owen Hall 005. The form must be signed by the dean of the student’s school. Completed forms should then be returned to Owen Hall 005, where students will pay their fees and receive class materials.

NOTE: Independent Study Program courses will not be considered for eligibility for full-time or half-time status when an official IU certification is requested.

Student Teacher Registration

Student teaching assignments are made by the Office of Student Teaching in the School of Education. Because students who participate in student teaching receive academic credit, it is necessary to register for this program as a student would for any other class.

Some student teaching and practicum classes may require permission/authorization. Contact Office of Teacher Education [856-8500] for additional information.

Special Information for Doctoral Students

Students who have completed all requirements for the doctorate except the dissertation and final examination are required to enroll in at least one hour of graduate credit each fall and spring term at the applicable resident or non-resident rate.

Students who enroll in one hour of thesis credit will be considered full-time students for certification purposes by the Office of the Registrar.

In addition, students who plan to complete the degree requirements during a summer session must enroll for that session in at least one hour of graduate credit. Students should contact their schools or divisions for specific details.
Drop/Add—

OneStart Student Center
April 6, 2009-September 4, 2009

Procedure

The Drop/Add system is available through SIS Student Center via OneStart [see OneStart for hours of availability].

A drop/add access fee is assessed to students who choose to make schedule adjustments after two business days have elapsed since the initial registration. The fee is assessed for each calendar day during which the student makes schedule adjustment(s).

Fee Payment

Fees from registration and drop/add activity through the fourth week of July are due on the published deadline: Monday, August 10, 2009. After August 10, any credits or charges resulting from waitlist processing or drop/add activity will be reflected on your next account statement.

If your credit-hour load changes after financial aid awards have been credited to your account, you may be required to repay part or all of the financial aid already received. Financial aid in process may also be reduced or cancelled.
Late Drop/Add—
eDrop and eAdd
Beginning September 8, 2009

Indiana University has developed an electronic drop and add (eDrop and eAdd) process to allow students to request class drops and adds via OneStart. eDrop/eAdd will be available from the second week of classes through the Automatic Withdrawal (Auto W) deadline.

NOTE: Students who are dropping all classes (including those enrolled in only one class) must follow procedures for withdrawal from the University (see Index).

Late fees: A late schedule change fee will be assessed for each class dropped after the first week of classes. The late schedule change fee also applies to a class number (section) change, a change of arranged hours, or a credit/audit change.

Waiver of the late schedule change fee will be considered only when it can be clearly demonstrated that the University, through one of its offices or officials, is directly responsible for the late drop/add activity.

Grades
Classes dropped after Friday, September 4 will be assigned a grade of W through the last day for an automatic grade of W [see Official Calendar]; thereafter, a grade of W or F must be assigned by the instructor.

After the automatic withdrawal period, a student may withdraw only with the permission of his or her dean. This approval is normally given only for urgent reasons related to extended illness or equivalent distress. Students should check with the office listed on page 14 under "Late Drop/Add Forms Distribution" for their school’s policy.

Note: A student who is found to have committed an act of academic misconduct while enrolled in a class and is assigned a grade of F by the instructor as a result of the misconduct will have a grade of F entered in place of the automatic W which would otherwise have applied. A grade of F recorded as a result of academic misconduct will be subject to the same procedures as if the student had not attempted to withdraw from the class.

IMPORTANT: If you are an undergraduate student enrolled in 12 credit hours or more you will receive the most favorable tuition treatment if the drop and add are initiated on the same day.

eDrop
All students [except those in the School of Law] are eligible to use eDrop.

To access eDrop, log into OneStart. On the Services tab, select the Student Self-Service link in the sidebar. Under Services & Information, click eDrop/eAdd Classes. See http://registrar.indiana.edu/pdfs/eDrop.pdf for detailed eDrop instructions.

NOTE
• Dropping classes could result in reduction or repayment of financial aid and additional tuition charges may apply.
• Submitting an eDrop request is not a confirmation that the course has been dropped from your schedule.

• Once submitted, your eDrop request will be routed to the appropriate advisor, department chair, and/or dean for approval.
• Once approved, your request will be processed and an e-mail confirming that the Drop is official will be sent to your University e-mail account.
• Until you receive an e-mail which says the Drop has been approved and processed, or until you confirm via “My eDocs” that the status of your request is FINAL, you are still enrolled in the course. All rules and requirements still apply, and you should continue to attend the class.

Any eDrop not approved or disapproved two weeks after the submission date will be cancelled by the Office of the Registrar.

eDrop/eAdd as a pair

Using eDrop & eAdd together means that your classes are contingent upon one another. They will be approved and processed as a pair. In order for both the drop and the add to process successfully, they must BOTH be approved. If either the drop or the add are not approved, neither request will be processed.

eDrop/eAdd as a pair will be available from the second week of classes through the Automatic Withdrawal (Auto W) deadline [see Official Calendar for dates].

Once submitted, eDrop & eAdd requests automatically route to the appropriate reviewers [instructors, advisors, department chairs, school deans, etc.] where they are able to take action electronically.

Once approved, the request will be processed and notification sent to you via your University e-mail account.

To access eDrop/eAdd as a pair, log into OneStart. On the Services tab, select the Student Self-Service link in the sidebar. Under Services & Information, click eDrop/eAdd Classes.

Any eDrop/eAdd pair not approved or disapproved two weeks after the submission date will be cancelled by the Office of the Registrar.

eAdd
To access eAdd, log into OneStart. On the Services tab, select the Student Self-Service link in the sidebar. Under Services & Information, click eDrop/eAdd Classes. See http://registrar.indiana.edu/pdfs/eAdd.pdf for detailed eAdd instructions.

NOTE
• Undergraduates may incur additional fees if they do not submit a drop and corresponding add together on the same form [whether electronic or paper].
• Once approved, the date you submit the eAdd request will be the date used to add the class. Fees will be determined based on that date.
• Adding classes that cause your schedule to go over the flat-fee 12-17 credit hour range can result in considerable financial assessments.
• Submitting an eAdd request does not guarantee that the course will be added to your schedule.
• Once submitted, eAdd requests automatically route to the appropriate reviewers (instructors, advisors, department chairs, school deans, etc.) for approval.

• It is your responsibility to monitor the status of your eAdd request. You are not officially registered and your schedule will NOT change until your request is approved and the class is added to your class schedule.

• If your eAdd request is approved, it will be processed and a confirmation will be sent to your University e-mail account.

• If there is a problem with your request or additional information is required, you will be notified via your University e-mail account.

Any eAdd not approved or disapproved two weeks after the submission date will be cancelled by the Office of the Registrar.
Late Drop/Add—
Beginning September 8, 2009

Warren W. Shirey Registration Center—Franklin Hall 101
(9 a.m.-4 p.m.)

NOTE: Students who are dropping all classes (including those enrolled in only one class) must follow procedures for withdrawal from the University [see Index].

Late fees: A late schedule change fee will be assessed for each class dropped after the first week of classes. The late schedule change fee also applies to a class number (section) change, a change of arranged hours, or a credit/audit change.

Waiver of the late schedule change fee will be considered only when it can be clearly demonstrated that the University, through one of its offices or officials, is directly responsible for the late drop/add activity.

Grades
Classes dropped after Friday, September 4 will be assigned a grade of W through the last day for an automatic grade of W (see Official Calendar); thereafter, a grade of W or F must be assigned by the instructor.

After the automatic withdrawal period, a student may withdraw only with the permission of his or her dean. This approval is normally given only for urgent reasons related to extended illness or equivalent distress. Students should check with the office listed below under “Late Drop/Add Forms Distribution” for their school’s policy.

Note: A student who is found to have committed an act of academic misconduct while enrolled in a class and is assigned a grade of F by the instructor as a result of the misconduct will have a grade of F entered in place of the automatic W which would otherwise have applied. A grade of F recorded as a result of academic misconduct will be subject to the same procedures as if the student had not attempted to withdraw from the class.

Exception (Paper) Procedure
1. Obtain late drop/add forms (i.e., final schedule adjustment form or change of class—same course) from the appropriate location (see forms distribution table below). Complete all requested student and class information.
2. Obtain required signatures:
   A. Signatures required to add a class:
      1. School dean [student’s school]
      2. Department chair [class department]
      3. Instructor
   B. Signatures required to drop a class:
      1. School dean [student’s school]
      2. Department chair [class department]
      3. Instructor [following the end of the automatic grade of W period—see Official Calendar]
4. Report directly to a Registration Consultant who will process your transaction. Do not use the online registration system.

Fee Payment
A late schedule change fee will be assessed for each course dropped after the first week of classes. The late schedule change fee also applies to a class number change, a change of arranged hours, or a credit/audit change.

No payments will be due nor any refunds made until the next monthly bills are generated. If the drop/add activity produces a credit balance on a student’s account, a refund will be directly deposited to the student’s chosen financial institution or a check will be mailed to the student at the student’s housing or local address on file as noted on OneStart.

Please refer to page 25 regarding Drop/Add Policy for graduate and undergraduate students.
General Registration Information

Registration Service Denials (Holds)
Academic checklist entries, immunization noncompliance status and financial encumbrances will prevent you from registering for classes until you take corrective action. These entries, if any, are reflected at OneStart (http://onestart.iu.edu). If OneStart reflects any holds, you must obtain a release for each entry. If OneStart reflects any immunization noncompliance holds, you must provide immunization data to the Office of the Registrar. If OneStart reflects an account encumbrance by the Office of the Bursar or by the Student Loan Administration, you must make payment and/or be cleared by the appropriate office.

Registration Appointments
Registration appointment dates and times are displayed on OneStart. Students are scheduled for registration appointments based upon total hours passed and transfer hours accepted at each student’s current program. Students with the greatest number of hours at their current level/current program will have the earliest appointments. Students may register any time after their registration appointment and may have a proxy register for them at or after their scheduled time.

Prerequisites
Many course sections have mandatory prerequisites which are listed in the school bulletins or in the online Schedule of Classes. Each student is responsible for meeting the published prerequisites for each course requested. After each registration period, schools and departments may review the completion of prerequisites of enrolled students. The academic units have the authority to administratively drop a student from a course for which the student has not fulfilled the published prerequisites.

Immunization Data Collection Requirement
A 1995 Indiana state law requires students to provide immunization data, or proof of religious exemption, to the Office of the Registrar. Students who do not comply with this requirement will be prevented from registering for future semesters/sessions. See index in this publication for information concerning the immunization data collection policy. Also link to http://registrar.indiana.edu. A link is provided there for students to provide immunization dates online.

Related Components
Students who register for classes that are structured with credit (usually lecture) and non-credit (usually discussion, laboratory, etc.) components should make a selection from each type of related component. The registration system will lead the student through the selection process.

Withdrawal from the University (All Courses)
Through the first week of the term, students can withdraw from the University without penalty by dropping all classes using the Drop/Add link on OneStart Student Center. After dropping all classes, it is a good idea to print a copy of your Class Schedule to be sure all classes were successfully dropped.

After the first week of the term students who are forced to discontinue all studies (even if enrolled in only one course) and withdraw from the University must contact the Student Advocates Office in Owen Hall 202, in order to complete the withdrawal process.

Please note the following exceptions: International students must go to the Office of International Services in Franklin Hall 306; law students must go to room 024 of the Law School, and University Division students must go to Maxwell Hall 101. All other students must withdraw through the Student Advocates Office. Failure to withdraw from the University through the appropriate office may result in grades of F in all courses.

If a student withdraws after the first week of classes, the classes in which the student was enrolled will be retained on the student’s record with a grade of W or F (as appropriate) and a notation of the date of withdrawal. The student should refer to the Official Calendar to determine the last day to withdraw with an automatic grade of W.

To qualify for the grade of W after the deadline, a student must be passing the class(es) on the date of withdrawal. If the student is failing, the grade on the date of withdrawal will be F.

Students should consult the Official Calendar in this publication to determine the period in which they can withdraw and still receive a full or partial fee refund.

Note: A student who is found to have committed an act of academic misconduct while enrolled in a class and is assigned a grade of F by the instructor as a result of the misconduct will have the grade of F entered in place of the automatic W which would otherwise have applied. A grade of F recorded as a result of academic misconduct will be subject to the same procedures as if the student had not attempted to withdraw from the class.
Pass/Fail Option
Students should consult their school bulletins to determine eligibility and restrictions on the pass/fail options. The responsibility for approval of the pass/fail requests, as well as special regulations affecting the option, will rest with the deans of the students’ schools or divisions, under procedures established by the schools or divisions.

Students interested in taking classes under the pass/fail option should obtain pass/fail option forms from the deans of their schools. Undergraduate students in the College of Arts and Sciences should obtain the forms from their advisers in their major departments. Kelley School of Business students are required to meet with an advisor in order to gain authorization for taking a course pass/fail; the advisor will fill out and submit the pass/fail form. University Division students should first obtain University Division pass/fail option forms from their academic advisers and return the completed forms to Maxwell Hall 028 in order to have the pass/fail option forms processed. Students in the School of Continuing Studies should obtain the form from the counselor in Maxwell Hall 020. All students should fill out the pass/fail option forms in full, obtain the appropriate signatures, and return them to the office of the deans of their schools by the published date (see the Official Calendar in this publication).

Instructors will not be notified by the Office of the Registrar about those students registering for the option. A grade of P is not counted in grade averages; a grade of F is included. A grade of P cannot be changed subsequently to a grade of A, B, C, or D.

Grade of Incomplete
A student who has received a grade of Incomplete (I) should not register for the course a second time, but should arrange with the instructor to have the I changed to a letter grade upon completion of all requirements.

Full-Time Student Status for Official Enrollment Certification Purposes
Listed below are the requirements that constitute full-time student status for official enrollment certification purposes by the Office of the Registrar and for financial assistance.

The Office of the Registrar is responsible for determining standards for full and half time enrollment and if an exception to those standards can be made. Questions regarding exceptions should be directed to the Office of the Registrar.

A student who is working on an undergraduate degree that requires 120 to 128 credit (unit) hours for completion of requirements should expect to complete 15 or 16 credit (unit) hours during regular semesters in order to complete degree requirements in eight semesters. See your adviser for more specific information regarding academic full time credit (unit) hour recommendations for your program.

Note that correspondence courses will not be counted toward credit (unit) hour totals.

The Veterans Administration considers 8-week and non-standard duration courses differently than the university for full-time status purposes. For further information about this as well as part-time certification requirements, please contact Veterans Support Services in Franklin Hall 006, or at vetserv@indiana.edu, (812) 856-1985.

Absence during the Last Portion of a Term

Failure to complete a class without an authorized withdrawal will result in the grade of F.

If a student is not in attendance during the last portion of a semester, the instructor may report a grade of I if there is reason to believe that the absence was beyond the student’s control; otherwise the instructor shall record an FN (Failure, non-attendance) and the last date of documented class attendance. FN is converted to F on the student’s academic record.

Residence Classification

Students returning to Indiana University after an absence of twelve or more consecutive months will need to provide additional information to the Office of the Registrar in order to clarify their residence status for fee-paying purposes. This information concerns employment, residential addresses and enrollment at other institutions of higher education during the period since their last semester enrolled on any campus of Indiana University. Following registration for each session, a residence audit of the enrollment files will identify returning students. An email request will be sent to those returning students who have not yet submitted the electronic Residence Classification Form for Fee-Paying Purposes at Indiana University.

University ID Number and Social Security Number

To help maintain the privacy of students’ Social Security Numbers, the Student Information System (SIS) uses a random primary identifier for student records called the University ID (UID). The UID has replaced the Student Identification Number (often the social security number) as the key to student records.

While the Social Security Number (SSN) is no longer the record key, it remains an important identifier for a student. As permitted by Indiana Code 4-1-10, the last four digits of the SSN may be used to uniquely identify admission applications, registrations, course enrollment documents, transcripts, certification requests, and permanent academic records. The full nine-digit SSN is also necessary to determine financial aid eligibility and is a required identifier for federal grants and loans, and other federal financial aid programs.

In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974 and Indiana Code 4-1-8, applicants for admission and enrolled students are advised that the requested disclosure of the Social Security number is voluntary. The applicant or student has the right to refuse disclosure of this number or request its removal from records without penalty. Note, however, that refusal to disclose the Social Security number would make a student ineligible for participation in federal Financial Aid programs.

CampusAccess ID Cards

Indiana University CampusAccess ID Cards are available for IUB registered students at the Campus Card Service Centers located in the Indiana Memorial Union and in Eigenmann Hall from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. At least one form of positive photo-identification will be required to confirm identity. Telephone 812-855-8711 or visit the web site at http://www.cacard.indiana.edu for additional information.
Final Examinations

Examination Policies
(Bloomington Faculty Council)

Exam Period
There shall be a 5-day examination period at the end of each semester. Exams must be given as printed in the Enrollment Bulletin.

Classes for Fall 2009 end on Saturday, December 12, 2009. Final examinations will be given from Monday, December 14, through Friday, December 18, according to the final examination schedule listed on following page. It is the student’s responsibility to check the final examination schedule to determine the date and time of particular final examinations.

Note that final examinations for classes not scheduled to meet through the last weeks of classes (e.g., first eight-week classes, etc.) will be held during the last class meeting.

Free Week
The week prior to the exam period shall be free of major or final exams, except for practical tests at the end of lab periods. Paper projects may be due only if assigned well in advance.

Present administrative interpretation of this regulation defines the week prior to the exam period as Monday, December 7, through Sunday, December 13, 2009.

More Than Three Exams in One Day
In the event of more than three exams in one day, the instructor/department of the fourth and subsequent exams is obligated to adjust the student’s exam time, provided the student notifies them by the mid-point of the semester.

In the event a student is scheduled to take more than three final examinations on the same day, the student may exercise the following options:

1. Take all final examinations as they are scheduled;
2. Consult with the instructors or departments giving the final examinations to determine if any make-up examination[s] is or can be scheduled. If no make-up examination is available, then the student must notify the instructor or department of the course scheduled for the fourth [and additional] final examination of the day. That instructor or that department will then be obligated to adjust the student’s final examination schedule, provided the student has notified that instructor or department before the halfway point of the semester.

Conflicts
Students having examination conflicts must report to the dean of the school in which they are enrolled.

Absence from Final Exams
Students who fail to attend the final exam of a class and who have a passing grade up to that point should be given an Incomplete only if the instructor has reason to believe the absence was beyond the student’s control. If not, the grade of “F” must be awarded.

Students who anticipate absences from final examinations, or who are absent from final examinations for reasons they did not anticipate, should discuss these absences with their instructors as soon as possible to make arrangements for the satisfaction of class requirements. Instructors may require students who are absent from final examinations to file a written explanation of the absence with the Dean of Students Office [Franklin Hall 108]. The Dean of Students Committee on Absence will review these written explanations and seek additional information, as necessary, before indicating its findings to the instructors involved. The final decision in the disposition of these matters remains the instructor’s.

Final Examination Schedule
The final examination schedule is prepared and published so that students may avoid conflicts in those courses having departmental examinations [e.g., two course finals at the same hour on the same day], and to avoid examination conflicts that might work a hardship on the student or be impossible to resolve. It is the student’s responsibility to be aware of the date and time of the final examination for each of his or her classes before officially enrolling.

The final examination schedule is printed on the following page. It may also be viewed at www.registrar.indiana.edu.
Course (Departmental) Final Examinations

If you are enrolled in one of the courses listed below, the final examination for the course will be given at the time and date listed in the following table, regardless of the regular class meeting times and dates.

General Financial Information

Fee Payment Information
See Fee Payment under instructions for each registration period.
Inquiries should be directed to the Office of the Bursar, Indiana University, Franklin Hall 011, 601 E. Kirkwood Avenue, Bloomington, Indiana 47405-1223. E-mail: bursar@indiana.edu; phone: (812) 855-2636.

Account Encumbrance
The Office of the Bursar is responsible for the collection of University financial obligations. An account that is past due is encumbered by the Office of the Bursar. The Student Loan Administration may also encumber the accounts of students or former students who have not satisfied their obligations to that department. A student whose account is encumbered will be denied certain University services (e.g., registration, transcripts).

Credit-Hour Fees (2008-09)
All fees are subject to change without notice by action of the Trustees of Indiana University. Credit-hour fees are assessed based upon the student’s residence classification, school, and class standing.

At the time of this printing, fees had not been established for the 2009-10 year. The rates that appear below are those for the 2008-09 year. The new rates will be published on the Office of the Bursar web site [http://bursar.indiana.edu] when approved.

Late Payment Fee

University policy requires timely payment for all charges owed to Indiana University, including but not limited to, tuition and fees, Department of Residential Programs and Services charges, Health Center charges, library and parking fines, and late fees. Any payment due by you to the University that is not received by the due date is subject to a late fee of 1.5%, with a $2.00 minimum, of the unpaid amount.

Thereafter, should any portion of your account remain unpaid, a late fee will continue to be assessed each month according to the above schedule.

Timely payment of your account with approved financial aid, personal check (unless restricted), cash, or Web payment will ensure that you avoid the monthly late fee assessment and keep your account in good standing.

Fee refunds for irregularly scheduled courses, including Law, are calculated according to the following schedule:

- Courses less than two weeks in duration
  - Withdrawal on first day of classes: 100%
  - Withdrawal on second day of classes: 50%
  - Withdrawal on third day of classes and thereafter: 0%

- Courses at least two weeks but less than five weeks in duration
  - Withdrawal on first or second day of classes: 100%
  - Withdrawal on third or fourth day of classes: 50%
  - Withdrawal on fifth day of classes and thereafter: 0%

- Courses at least five weeks but less than nine weeks in duration
  - Withdrawal during first week of classes: 100%
  - Withdrawal during second week of classes: 50%
  - Withdrawal during third week of classes and thereafter: 0%

- Courses nine weeks or more in duration
  - Withdrawal during first week of classes: 100%
  - Withdrawal during second week of classes: 75%
  - Withdrawal during third week of classes: 50%
  - Withdrawal during fourth week of classes: 25%

Drop/Add Policy

Undergraduate Students (Fall/Spring Terms) Enrolled in 12-17 Hours (the “flat fee” range):

Undergraduate students in the “flat fee” range (enrolled in 12-17 credit hours) who adjust hours after the first week of classes will not have any change in tuition assessment if the requests are initiated on the same day and if they maintain enrollment in the “flat fee” range of hours after the adjustment.

Changes to enrollment which result in enrollment in fewer than 12 or in more than 17 hours will incur additional costs. The dropped hours will be credited at the percentage amount appropriate to the refund period, and a late schedule change fee will be assessed. The added hours will be charged to your account at 100 percent of the cost.

There is no financial credit given for a dropped course after the close of the refund period.

A Late Schedule Change Fee of $23 will be assessed beginning in the second week of classes for each section dropped.

Undergraduate Students (Fall/Spring Terms) Enrolled in 18 or More Credit Hours

Undergraduate students enrolled in 18 or more credit hours who adjust hours after the first week of classes will not have any change in tuition assessment if the requests are initiated on the same day and if they remain in the same number of hours as initially enrolled (that is, as enrolled prior to the drop and add activity).

If the drop and add are initiated on the same day, but the number of hours enrolled increases, the student will be charged for the “net add” at the credit-hour rate. If the drop and add are initiated on the same day, but the number of hours enrolled decreases, the student will be refunded for the “net drop” at the appropriate percentage down to 17 hours. Note that a refund only occurs during the refund period (generally, the first four weeks of the term), and that the student has not dropped below 12 hours.

Example 1: After the first week of classes, a student in 18 hours drops 3 hours and adds 6 on the same day. The student would be charged for 3 hours (the “net add”) at the credit-hour rate.

Example 2: During the second week of classes a student in 19 hours adds 3 hours and drops 6 on the same day. The “net drop” is 3 hours; the student receives a 75% refund on 2 of those hours [the difference between 19 and 17]. After the end of the partial refund period (for regular full-term courses, the end of the fourth week) the student would not be charged for added hours accompanied by paired drops of equal or greater hours, but there would be no refund for “net drops.” Throughout the term, adds will continue to be offset against drops requested on the same day before assessing the “net add” at the credit-hour rate.

A Late Schedule Change Fee of $23 will be assessed beginning in the second week of classes for each section dropped.

Undergraduate Students (Fall/Spring Terms) Enrolled in Fewer than 12 Credit Hours

If an undergraduate student enrolled in fewer than 12 credit hours drops and adds hours after the first week of classes, the student will receive a partial refund for the dropped course(s) (for regular, full-term courses: 75% the second week, 50% the third, 25% the fourth and 0% thereafter) and will pay in full for the added course(s). The partial refund will be applied toward the fees charged for the added course(s). A Late Schedule Change Fee of $23 will be assessed beginning in the second week of classes for each section dropped.

Students with fee scholarships/fee remissions should be aware that during the partial (<100%) refund period, a portion of the fee remission applying to the dropped course is also forfeited, so that the full value of the fee remission is no longer available to apply toward an added course.

A Late Schedule Change Fee of $23 will be assessed beginning in the second week of classes for each section dropped.

Fee Policy Appeals

Students have the right to submit an appeal of the refund policy if there are significant or unusual circumstances that cause them to drop a course or withdraw from all courses after the refund period. Students may also appeal the assessment of late fees or penalty fees in cases of extenuating circumstances or University error. The procedure for filing an appeal is:

1. After dropping the course or withdrawing from all courses, obtain the necessary appeal form online at http://bursar.indiana.edu by choosing “Forms”. You must drop the course or withdraw from all courses before an appeal can be considered.

2. Submit the appeal form to the Office of the Bursar. Once submitted, the appeal is forwarded to the Fee Policy Appeals Committee for consideration.

3. Once a committee decision has been rendered, that decision will be communicated to the student in writing.

A request for appeal must be submitted within one year following the end of the term or session for which relief is being sought.

IU Fee Courtesy Plan

Full-time Academic and Staff appointed by the end of the first full week of the semester or session, for the associated fall/spring semester or first summer session. IU Fee Courtesy Plan benefits apply to covered employees and their spouses, qualified domestic partners, and qualified children. IU Fee Courtesy Plan benefits provide a subsidy for tuition costs, but do not apply to mandatory fees or special fees, such as laboratories, applied music, student teaching, education early experience, dissertation research fee (G901 and B798), or rental of special equipment and facilities and fees for non credit courses.

Provisions of the IU Fee Courtesy Plan can be obtained at the University Human Resource Services office or http://www.indiana.edu/~uhrs/benefits/fee_courtesy.html. Application forms can be printed by choosing “Forms”. You must drop the course or withdraw from all courses before an appeal can be considered.

Return completed forms to University Human Resource Services, Bloomington Campus, Poplars Building E165.
Returned Checks or Web ACH Payments

The return by any financial institution of a dishonored payment (check or Web ACH) issued to Indiana University will result in the assessment of a per payment service charge against the issuer’s account (or against the account of the student on whose behalf the payment was presented). The returned payment service charge, as authorized by Indiana law, is $27.50 or five percent of the payment, whichever is greater, not to exceed $250. Two or more dishonored payments will result in the requirement that all future University payments be made with guaranteed funds (cashier’s check, money order, or cash).

Checks or Web ACH payments used to relieve an encumbrance which are subsequently returned by the financial institution will automatically result in the requirement that all future University payments be made with guaranteed funds. In addition, the University reserves the right to cancel the student’s enrollment in this situation.

Collection of Past Due Accounts

If any bursar account is past due, the Office of the Bursar will attempt contact for payment. Where appropriate, the outstanding balance may be reported to the credit bureau as a delinquent account and placed with an outside collection agency. If the University or its agent is unable to obtain satisfactory payment arrangements, the student or account holder could face litigation, wage garnishment, and/or loss of income tax refunds. Students or account holders will be liable for all reasonable collection costs, including agency and attorney fees, necessary for the collection of a past due account.
E-mail as Official IU Communication

The University reserves the right to send official communications to students by e-mail with the full expectation that students will receive e-mail and read these e-mails in a timely fashion. Official university e-mail accounts are available for all registered students. Official university communications will be sent to students’ official university e-mail addresses. For IU-Bloomington, this is the @indiana.edu address.

Students are expected to check their e-mail on a frequent and consistent basis in order to stay current with university-related communications. In addition to their university e-mail account, students should also check for course-related e-mail within Oncourse. The same user id and password are used for Oncourse and the university e-mail system. For more information about Oncourse, visit http://oncourse.iu.edu.

Students who choose to have their e-mail forwarded from their official university e-mail address to another address do so at their own risk. The University is not responsible for any difficulties that may occur in the proper or timely transmission or access to e-mail forwarded to any other address, and any such problems will not absolve students of their responsibility to know and comply with the content of official communications sent to their official IU e-mail addresses. Instructions on setting up or cancelling the forwarding of e-mail may be found by visiting http://itaccounts.iu.edu.

Grades Reporting

Access to final grades is available using OneStart as grades are submitted by the faculty and posted to students’ records:

- Click on the “Go to Student Center” link.
- Under the blue “Academics” bar, click on the “My Academics and Grades” link.
- Under “Term Information,” click on the “View Grades” link.
- Select the appropriate term link and click “Continue.”

Your classes and any reported grades for the selected term will be displayed. Term and Cumulative grade point averages will also be available after all grades are submitted by the faculty and are official [see Official Calendar in this publication.]

Grades are available via OneStart at any time, except for 5:00 a.m. to 6:00 a.m. each morning, Monday through Saturday, and 12:01 a.m. to 8:00 a.m. on Sunday.

Connecting to the IU Computing Network

University Information Technology Services (UITS) is the information technology support organization at IU dedicated to helping you succeed academically by providing an extensive and varied computing environment and nationally recognized computing support. You get:

- Online resources through OneStart, the gateway to many university services
- Computing accounts for using email, printing, storing files, and hosting Web pages
- Free and low-cost software including Microsoft Office, Adobe products, Norton/Symantec AntiVirus, EndNote, and Visual Studio Professional
- Almost 100 technology centers with Windows, Mac, and Unix/Linux workstations
- High-speed Ethernet connections in every campus residence and wireless network access in most
- A wireless network that covers virtually the entire campus
- Free workshops, 24-hour help desks, online support, and publications
- IT news and updates on via the web, by email, and RSS feeds

To use UITS resources, you’ll need a Network ID, which you should have received when you first enrolled.

Connecting from Student & Residential Technology Centers

You can use over 2,000 workstations in dozens of Student Technology Centers (STCs) and Residential Technology Centers (RTCs). There you can check e-mail, use OneStart, surf the Web, use popular software, and print using your printing allotment. Helpful consultants staff many STCs and RTCs.

IMPORTANT: Don’t forget to log out of the workstation you’ve been using in a STC or RTC when you are done. Failing to do so is a serious security risk to both you and the University.

Connecting from your campus residence

UITS provides you with a high-speed Ethernet computer connection in your campus residence, as well as wireless network access via IU Secure. You can connect to the network using your computer already equipped with an Ethernet or wireless network card. To automatically configure your computer for network connection, visit getconnected.iu.edu and follow the directions provided.

Connecting using wireless (Wi-Fi)

With your laptop and wireless network card, you can connect to the wireless network in most locations across campus. The IU Secure network is the new secure wireless option, so be sure to select it from the available wireless networks that appear. For help connecting and configuring your laptop, contact UITS.
Connecting from off campus

If you live off campus, see if your apartment complex offers Ethernet connections or contact a local broadband (cable or DSL) service provider. In both cases you’ll need a network card. You may need to authenticate using VPN to use some university services through such a provider. Contact UITS for instructions.

If you don’t use a broadband provider, you’ll need a 56K V.90 modem in your computer to dial into the university network. You’ll find software and instructions for connecting via modem on the IUware CD, available at the IU Bookstore for $5 plus tax.

Student email

Indiana University has partnered with Microsoft and Google to offer students two options for email and other online communication services: Imail powered by Microsoft and Umail powered by Google. Students can select one or both of these options, while choosing one as an official email account. If you don’t already have an Imail or Umail account, see: http://kb.iu.edu/data/avtf.html

Need help?

If you have questions about your Network ID or any UITS services, stop by the UITS Support Center in the Herman B Wells Library Information Commons, call 855-6789, e-mail ithelp@iu.edu, or visit http://uits.iu.edu/

Prerequisites

Many classes have mandatory prerequisites which are listed in the school bulletins or in the online Schedule of Classes at www.registrar.indiana.edu.

Each student is responsible for finding the prerequisites for courses they wish to take. After each enrollment period, schools and departments may review the completion of prerequisites of enrolled students. The academic units have the authority to administratively drop a student from a course for which the student has not fulfilled the published prerequisites.

Meeting Times

The regular seventy-five minute class meeting periods begin at the following times: 8:00, 9:30, 11:15, 1:00, 2:30, 4:00, 5:45, 7:15 and 8:45 p.m. A fifteen-minute interval is scheduled between these periods.

The regular fifty-five minute class periods begin at the following times: 8:00, 9:05, 10:10, 11:15, 12:20, 1:25, 2:30, 3:35, 4:40, 5:45, 6:50, 7:55, and 9:00 p.m. A fifteen-minute interval is scheduled between classes.

Other classes meet according to the times specified in the course offerings.

Course Descriptions

Descriptions of course content are listed in the bulletin of the school in which the course is offered. Bulletins for most schools are available in the Office of the Registrar, Franklin Hall 100. Bulletins for the various schools are also available in the respective offices of the deans.

In addition, semester specific online class descriptions are available at www.registrar.indiana.edu.

Please see www.registrar.indiana.edu for course and class listings.

School of Continuing Studies

Independent Study Program/Distance Education

With permission from their dean, IU degree-seeking students have the option of taking distance education courses through the Independent Study Program. For further information about available courses, students may consult the Independent Study University Courses catalog, available in Owen Hall 005, by calling 855-2392, or by visiting the School of Continuing Studies Website at http://scs.indiana.edu.

Enrollment Procedure

Students should obtain an enrollment form from the School of Continuing Office of Learner Services, Owen Hall 005. The form must be signed by the dean of the student’s school. Completed forms should then be returned to Owen Hall 005 where students will pay their fees and receive course materials.

These classes are not available for Registration via OneStart Student Center.

Note: Independent study courses will not be considered for eligibility for full or half-time status when an official IU certification is requested.

General Information

Waiver of Requirements

Although this publication does not define the requirements for degrees offered on the Bloomington campus, all students should be familiar with the policy regarding requests for waivers:

Requests for deviation from department, program, or school requirements may be granted only by written approval from the respective chairperson, director, or dean (or their respective administrative representative). Disposition at each level is final.

Academic Deans' Office Hours

Offices of the academic deans are open Monday through Friday, generally from 9 a.m.-12 noon and 1 p.m.-4 p.m., and are closed Saturday and Sunday. Most student academic problems can be resolved by the dean's office. If you need to see a dean personally, it will be better to call in advance to make an appointment.

Academic Freedom

University Faculty Council Action [Approved May 17, 1966; Amended November 30, 1976]

Academic freedom, accompanied by responsibility, attaches to all aspects of a teacher’s and librarian’s professional conduct. The teacher and librarian shall have full freedom of investigation, subject to adequate fulfillment of other academic duties. No limitation shall be placed upon the teacher’s and librarian’s freedom of exposition of the subject in the classroom, or library, or on the expression of it outside.

The teacher should not subject students to discussion in the classroom of topics irrelevant to the content of the course. No censorship shall be imposed on the librarian’s freedom to select and make available any materials supporting the teaching, research, and general learning functions of the academic community. In public utterances the teacher and librarian shall be free of institutional control, but when either the teacher or librarian writes or speaks as a citizen, an endeavor should be made to avoid appearing as a spokesman for the University. The teacher or librarian should recognize that a professional position in the community involves the obligation to be accurate, to exercise appropriate restraint, and to show respect for the right of others to express their views.

Cases involving alleged impairment of academic freedom shall be referred to the appropriate Board of Review and dealt with according to established procedure.

Code of Academic Ethics

University Faculty Council Action [Approved November 3, 1970; Board of Trustees, December 19, 1970; Amended: University Faculty Council, November 30, 1976; February 11, 1986; February 11, 1992; October 3, 1996; April 27, 2004; April 12, 2005; Board of Trustees, December 13, 1996] administration. Such persons are referred to in the Code as “Academic Personnel.” References in the Code to “Faculty” include tenured members of the faculty, librarians, and persons whose service to the University may lead to tenure.

Organization. This Code contains two major sections: first, a statement of rights and responsibilities, and second, a statement of enforcement procedures. The first section is divided into three subsections. The first subsection, in seven parts, is a general statement of the rights and responsibilities of Academic Personnel adapted from the “Statement of Professional Ethics” adopted as policy by the American Association of University Professors in April, 1966. The second subsection consists of representative responsibilities applicable to academic employment at Indiana University. The third subsection consists of the Rules of Conduct outlined in the prevailing Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, & Conduct. It is assumed that academic personnel will accept without reservation those rules of conduct which are generally applicable within the University community and which are expressed at the moment within the student code.

The second section is also divided into three subsections. The first subsection deals with initiation of complaints, the second with appropriate administrative actions, and the third with reviews of administrative action.

A. Rights and Responsibilities

I. General Statement

Scholarship. A scholar recognizes a primary responsibility to seek and to state the truth without bias. Striving to improve scholarly competence, continuing always to keep abreast of knowledge of his or her discipline, the scholar exercises discipline in judgment in using, extending, and transmitting knowledge, and practices intellectual honesty. Although subsidiary interests may be followed, these must never seriously hamper or compromise freedom of inquiry.

Teaching. A teacher encourages the pursuit of learning in students, holding before them the best scholarly standards of the discipline. Respecting students as individuals, the teacher seeks to establish a relationship of mutual trust, and adheres to the proper role as intellectual guide and counselor. The teacher makes every effort to foster honest academic conduct and to assure that the evaluation of students' scholastic performance reflects their true achievement, with reference to criteria appropriate to the field of study. Any exploitation of students for private advantage is rejected and their significant assistance is acknowledged. The teacher protects their academic freedom and serves as an example of this principle by assuring that each student and colleague is free to voice opinions openly and to exchange ideas free from interference.

Librarianship. A librarian in the academic community is responsible for the collection and dissemination of information and materials and for services pertaining thereto in support of the teaching, research and general learning functions to the university. A librarian is obligated to keep abreast of the latest developments in the profession and with processes and services to improve library service.

Relations with Colleagues. As colleagues, academic personnel have obligations that derive from common membership in the community of scholars. Such persons respect and defend the self-discipline and professional standards of themselves and their associates. In the exchange of criticism and ideas, they show due regard for the opinions of others. They acknowledge their academic debts and strive to be objective in their professional judgment of colleagues. They accept the full share of responsibility for the governance of the University.

Relations with Students. With regard to relations with students, the term “faculty” or “faculty member” means all those who teach and/or do research at the University including [but not limited to] tenured and tenure-track faculty, librarians, holders of research, lecturer, or clinical appointments, graduate students with teaching responsibilities, visiting and part-time faculty, and other instructional personnel including coaches, advisors, and counselors.

The University’s educational mission is promoted by professionalism in faculty/student relationships. Professionalism is fostered by an atmosphere of mutual trust and respect. Actions of faculty members and students that harm this atmosphere undermine professionalism and hinder fulfillment of the University’s educational mission. Trust and respect are diminished when those in positions of authority abuse or appear to abuse their power. Those who abuse their power in such a context violate their duty to the University community.

Faculty members exercise power over students, whether in giving them praise or criticism, evaluating them, making recommendations for their further studies or their future employment, or conferring any other benefits on them. All amorous or sexual relationships between faculty members and students are unacceptable when the faculty member has any professional responsibility for the student. Such situations greatly increase the chances that the faculty member will abuse his or her power and sexually exploit the student. Voluntary consent by the student is insufficient to absolve the faculty member of such behavior. Therefore, the University will view it as a violation of this Code of Academic Ethics if faculty members engage in amorous or sexual relations with students for whom they have professional responsibility, unless the student is in 1 or 2 below, even when both parties have consented or appear to have consented to the relationship. Such professional responsibility encompasses both instructional and non-instructional contexts.

Relationships in the Instructional Context. A faculty member shall not have an amorous or sexual relationship, consensual or otherwise, with a student who is enrolled in a course being taught by the faculty member or whose performance is being supervised or evaluated by the faculty member.

2. Relationships outside the Instructional Context. A faculty member should be careful to distance himself or herself from any decisions that may reward or penalize a student with whom he or she has or has had an amorous or sexual relationship, even outside the institutional context, especially when the faculty member and student are in the same academic unit or in units that are allied academically.

Relation to the University. Indiana University is committed to the concept of academic freedom and recognizes that such freedom, accompanied by responsibility, attaches to all aspects of a teacher’s or librarian’s professional conduct. Within this context, each person observes the regulations of the University, and maintains the right to criticize and to seek revision and reform. A teacher or librarian determines the amount and character of work done outside the University with due regard to paramount responsibilities within it. When considering interruption or termination of service, the teacher or librarian recognizes the effect of the decision upon the program of the University and gives due notice. Above all, or she strives to be an effective teacher, scholar, librarian, or administrator.

Relation to the Community. As members of the community, academic appointees have the rights and obligations of any citizen. They should measure the urgency of these obligations in the light of their responsibilities to their subject, to their students, to their profession, and to the University. When they speak or write as citizens, they are free from institutional censorship or discipline. At the same time, their positions as members of a university and of a learned profession impose special responsibilities. When they speak or act as private persons, they make it clear that they are not speaking or acting for the University.

They will also remember that the public may judge their profession and the University by their utterances and conduct, and they will take pains to be accurate and to exercise restraint.

II. Specific Responsibilities

In addition to the preceding general statements of ethical performance within the academic profession, there are specific responsibilities that devolve upon the academic appointee who accepts a position at Indiana University. Observation of such responsibilities as the following is also a component of academic ethics.

1. A teacher will maintain a clear connection between the advance description of class content and the free inquiry and self-judgment of each course presented to ensure efficient subject selection by students.

2. A teacher will clearly state the course goals and will inform students of testing and grading systems; moreover, these systems should be intellectually justifiable and consistent with the rules and regulations of the academic division.

3. A teacher will plan and regulate class time with an awareness of its value for every student and will meet classes regularly.

4. A teacher will remain available to students and will announce and keep liberal office hours at hours convenient to students.

5. A teacher will strive to strive to develop among students respect for others and their opinions by demonstrating his or her own respect for each student as an individual, regardless of race, sex, national origin, religion, age, or physical handicap.

6. A teacher will strive to generate a proper respect for an understanding of academic freedom by students. At the same time, a teacher will emphasize high standards and strive to protect students from irrelevant and trivial interruptions or diversions.

7. Since letters of evaluation written by a teacher may be uniquely important documents in both the academic and post-university life of a student, each teacher will strive to make such letters both candid and fair.

8. A librarian recognizes the need for continual development, maintenance and improvement of standard and specialized bibliographical resources.

9. A librarian cooperates with the teaching and research faculty to develop the collection in support of the curricular offerings of the academic community.

10. A librarian recognizes intellectual and professional obligations to serve the University and the community at large.

11. A librarian has an obligation to recommend and make improvements in library service.

12. A librarian accepts the responsibility for the care and preservation of library materials.
III. Responsibilities as University Citizens

13. Academic personnel will strive to protect not only their own right of freedom of inquiry, teaching, and expression but also their colleagues' right to the same freedom.

14. In the interest of avoiding actual or perceived conflict of interest, academic personnel shall not directly supervise employees with whom they are having sexual or amorous relationships. Academic supervisors shall disqualify themselves from employment-related decisions concerning such employees, and, in consultation with the employee involved and other appropriate persons, the Dean of the Faculties or the equivalent campus administrator shall take steps for the appointment of a surrogate supervisor.

15. While in the classroom, academic personnel should refrain from adverse personal comments about their colleagues. At all times, academic personnel should exercise restraint and discretion in comments about other courses or divisions in the University.

16. Constructive criticism of colleagues is sometimes necessary in the interest of the individual criticized or the entire University community. To be constructive, however, such criticism should be channeled, in confidence, toward those persons (preferably the individual concerned but also academic superiors, faculty committees, or administrative officers) who have the power to correct or influence conduct in a constructive way. Indiscriminate criticism or gossip about colleagues is condemned.

17. Each academic person retains the right to criticize and to seek to remedy, by appropriate means, regulations and policies of the University. Among means deemed inappropriate are: acts of physical violence against members or guests of the University community; acts which interfere with academic freedom, freedom of speech, or freedom of movement; and acts of destruction of University property. It is equally inappropriate to advise others to commit such acts.

18. If criticizing the University, the academic person should be aware of ameliorative procedures which exist within the University and should use these procedures in preference to conducting public criticisms of the institutions or any of its divisions.

19. Each academic person will ensure that outside commitments do not interfere in terms of time, energy, or conflict of interest with obligations to the University. As a safeguard against such interference, each will:
   a. report to an appropriate authority plans to engage in gainful activities of an extensive, recurring, or continuing nature; and
   b. notify an appropriate authority of any notice to serve as advisor or consultant to an agency granting money to the University.

20. He or she will give adequate notice of interruption or termination of service. In order that instructional programs will not be interrupted, before leaving, the academic person will:
   a. complete all normal duties;
   b. provide complete records of grades and similar data to departmental chairpersons; and
   c. provide properly for incomplete class and thesis work.

21. He or she will work with colleagues individually and collectively toward furthering both personal and group interests so long as such cooperation does not require violation of intellectual and moral integrity.

22. Each academic person will accept a share of the obligation for helping the University function smoothly as a living and vigorous educational community. Toward achieving this goal, he or she will serve on committees, accept a reasonable burden of administrative duties, and work cooperatively with administrative officers of the University in order to further all the legitimate goals of the institution.

III. Responsibilities as University Citizens

In retaining the rights to speak and act as citizens of the communities in which they dwell, academic personnel must assume as well the responsibilities which are incumbent upon the citizenship. Academic personnel, therefore, accept and adopt the provisions of the Indiana University Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct pertaining to personal misconduct on University property (Part II, Section H), which is printed below.

Personal Misconduct on University Property

The university may discipline a student for the following acts of personal misconduct which occur on university property, including, but not limited to, academic and administration buildings, residence halls, athletic and recreational facilities, and other university serviced property, such as sororities and fraternities:

1. Dishonest conduct including, but not limited to, false accusation of misconduct, forgery, alteration, or misuse of any university document, record, or identification, and giving to a university official information known to be false.

2. Assuming another person's identity or role through deception or without proper authorization. Communicating or acting under the guise, name, identification, e-mail address, signature, or other indications of another person or group without proper authorization or authority.

3. Knowingly initiating, transmitting, filing, or circulating a false report or warning concerning an impending bombing, fire, or other emergency or catastrophe; or transmitting such a report to an agency or authority.

4. Unauthorized release or use of any university access codes for university computer systems, duplicating systems and other university equipment.

5. Conduct that is lewd, indecent, or obscene.

6. Disorderly conduct, including obstructive and disruptive behavior that interferes with teaching, research, administration, or other university or university-authorized activity. (See Guidelines for Dealing with Disruptive Students in Academic Settings, University Faculty Council, April 12, 2005)

7. Actions that endanger one's self, others in the university community, or the academic process.

8. Failure to comply with the directions of authorized university officials in the performance of their duties, including failure to identify oneself when requested to do so; failure to comply with the terms of a disciplinary sanction; or refusal to vacate a university facility without a reasonable cause.

9. Unauthorized entry, use, or occupancy of university facilities.

10. Unauthorized taking, possession or use of university property or services or the property or services of others.

11. Damage or destruction of university property or the property belonging to others.

12. Unauthorized setting of fires on university property, unauthorized use of or interference with fire equipment and emergency exits.

13. Unauthorized possession, use, manufacture, distribution, or sale of illegal fireworks, incendiary devices, or other dangerous explosives.

14. Possession of any weapon or potential weapons on any university property contrary to law or university policy; possession or display of any firearm on university property, except in the course of an authorized activity.

15. Sale of any firearms from university property or using university facilities, including through computer and telephone accounts, intentional possession of a dangerous article or substance as a potential weapon.

16. Acting with violence.

17. Aiding, encouraging, or participating in a riot.

18. Harassment, defined in Part I [c] of the Code as follows: "Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, including requests for sexual favors and other unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, when submission to such conduct is made, either explicitly or implicitly, a term or condition of a student's education, or submission to or rejection of such conduct by a student is used as the basis for academic conditions affecting the student, or the conduct has the effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive learning environment."

19. Stalking or hazing of any kind whether the behavior is carried out verbally, physically, electronically, or in written form.
   a. Stalking is defined as repeated, unwanted contact in the forms of calling, including, but not limited to, phone calls, e-mail, physical presence, and regular mail.
   b. Hazing is defined as any conduct that subjects another person, whether physically, mentally, emotionally, or psychologically, to anything that may endanger, abuse, degrade, or intimidate the person as a condition of association with a group or organization, regardless of the person's consent or lack of consent.

20. Physical abuse of any person, including the following:
   a. The use of physical force or violence to restrict the freedom of action or movement of another person or to endanger the health or safety of another person.
   b. Physical behavior that involves an express or implied threat to interfere with an individual's personal safety, academic efforts, employment, or participation in university-sponsored extracurricular activities or causes the person to have a reasonable apprehension that such harm is about to occur; or
   c. Physical behavior that has the purpose or reasonably foreseeable effect of interfering with an individual's personal safety, academic efforts, employment, or participation in university sponsored extracurricular activities or causes the person to have a reasonable apprehension that such harm is about to occur.
24. Intentionally obstructing or blocking access to university facilities, property, or programs.

23. Unauthorized possession, manufacture, sale, distribution or use of illegal drugs, any controlled substance, or drug paraphernalia. Being under the influence of illegal drugs or unauthorized controlled substances.

22. Unauthorized possession, use, or supplying alcoholic beverages to others contrary to law or university policy.
   a. Indiana University prohibits:
   (1) Use or possession of alcoholic beverages on university property (including any undergraduate residence supervised by the university, including fraternity and sorority houses) except as otherwise noted in Part II, Section H (22) b, and Part II, Section H(22) c.
   (2) Providing alcohol contrary to law.
   b. The Dean of Students of each campus has discretion to allow exceptions to Part II, Section H (22) a, allowing use or possession of alcohol by persons, including students, who meet the minimum drinking age standards of the State of Indiana, under the following circumstances:
   (1) Use or possession of alcoholic beverages by persons who are of lawful drinking age may be generally permitted in residences supervised by the university, including fraternity and sorority houses, when specifically approved by the campus Dean of Students. Such use or possession may be allowed in residence rooms, apartments, and certain common areas as specifically approved by the Dean of Students. However, use or possession under this section shall be permitted only in residences supervised by a live-in employee specifically charged with policy enforcement, when temporary permission is granted by the Dean of Students for events at which persons of lawful drinking age may lawfully possess and use alcoholic beverages.
   (2) Use or possession of alcoholic beverages may be permitted on an event-by-event basis in designated undergraduate residences (including fraternity and sorority houses) supervised by a live-in employee specifically charged with policy enforcement, when temporary permission is granted by the Dean of Students for events at which persons of lawful drinking age may lawfully possess and use alcoholic beverages.
   c. The Chancellor of each campus has discretion to allow exceptions to Part II, Section H (22) a, allowing use or possession of alcohol by persons, including students, who meet the minimum drinking age standards of the State of Indiana, under the following circumstances:
   (1) Use or possession of alcoholic beverages may be permitted in facilities such as student unions or on-campus hotels, including guest rooms and other areas, specifically approved by the campus Chancellor.
   (2) Use or possession of alcoholic beverages may be permitted in other areas, such as private office and faculty lounges, not accessible to the public.
   (3) Use or possession of alcoholic beverages may be permitted in areas accessible to the public, if specifically approved by the campus Chancellor.
   d. Indiana University also permits the non-conspicuous possession of alcoholic beverages on university property when in transit to areas where they may be possessed or used under the provisions above.
   e. Student organizations that serve or permit possession of alcoholic beverages at student organization functions, on or off campus, may be disciplined if violations of alcoholic beverage laws or of university regulations occur. Individual students who plan, sponsor, or direct such functions also may be subject to discipline.
   f. The Chancellor or Dean of Students may make rules covering these uses. Those rules shall be enforceable as provisions of this code.

25. Violation of other disseminated university regulations, policies, or rules. Examples of such regulations include but are not limited to university computing policies, residence hall policies, and recreational sports facility policies.

26. A violation of any Indiana or federal criminal law.

27. Engaging in or encouraging any behavior or activity that threatens or intimidates any potential participant in a judicial process.

B. Enforcement Procedures

I. Initiation of Complaints

Any concerned person may initiate complaints about alleged violations of this code. Such complaints should be brought to the attention of an appropriate chairperson or dean, or to the appropriate Dean of the Faculty or his or her deputy, the Dean of Faculties shall provide for confidential representations regarding such violations. Charges of discriminatory practice may be referred also to the appropriate Affirmative Action officer.

II. Administrative Action on Violations of Academic Ethics

The line of administrative action in cases of alleged violation of academic ethics shall be the chairperson, the academic dean, the appropriate Dean of the Faculties, the appropriate Chancellor, a Vice President, where appropriate; and the President. Subject to the substantive standards of University tenure policy and the procedural safeguards of the faculty institution, sanctions appropriate to the offense should be applied by the academic administrators. Possible sanctions include the following: reprimand, consideration in establishing annual salary, consideration in promotion decisions, consideration in tenure decisions, retention of salary, termination of employment, and immediate dismissal.

III. Review of Administrative Action

Academic appointees affected by administrative action taken against them on grounds of violation of the Code of Ethics, whether or not the action resulted from proceedings provided in this Code, shall have such rights as are provided by the rules governing appeals to the Faculty Board of Review or to an Associate Instructor Board of Review of the appropriate campus. Appointees also have the rights of hearing and appeal provided by any other procedure of the University for the review of administrative action.

Policy on Student Academic and Personal Misconduct

Faculty are required to report all incidents of academic misconduct to the Dean of Students and may report incidents of personal misconduct, such as classroom incivility. For information about policies and procedures, including due process requirements, see the Indiana University Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct Code, or the Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct Code, especially Part II: Student Responsibilities and Conduct Code, or the Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct Code.

Policy on Faculty Misconduct

Students who believe that any of their rights have been violated by a member of the university faculty or administration may make a formal complaint according to procedures outlined in the Indiana University Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct Code. Procedures for Bloomington Campus. The local campus offices of the Dean of Students, Affirmative Action officer.

Alcohol and Drug-Free Campus Policy

In compliance with the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 [41 U.S.C. § 701] and the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 [20 U.S.C. § 1011l], the following policy shall govern the conduct of all University students and employees (including but not limited to faculty, appointed and hourly employees, and student-hourly employees) on all campuses and workplaces controlled by Indiana University.

1. The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession or use of a controlled substance (usually referred to as illegal drugs listed under the federal Controlled Substances Act) and alcohol is prohibited on University property or in the course of a University activity.
2. As a condition of employment with Indiana University, University employees are required:
   a. to abide by the prohibition contained in paragraph 1, above; and
b. to notify the campus Provost in the event they are convicted under any criminal drug statute for a violation occurring on University property, no later than five days after such conviction.

3. Any University employee found to be under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance while on University property, or in the course of a University activity, is subject to disciplinary action described in paragraph 5, below.

4. Any University employee convicted of a criminal alcohol violation or of a violation of the criminal drug statutes occurring on University property is subject to disciplinary action described in Paragraph 5, below.

5. Consistent with local, state and federal law, and with applicable Indiana University policies and procedures, Indiana University will discipline students and employees who violate this Alcohol and Drug-Free Campus Policy up to and including expulsion, termination of employment, and/or referral for prosecution. Discipline may also include the completion of an appropriate rehabilitation program.

6. Any employee whose use of alcohol or of controlled substances away from the University can reasonably be established to be the cause of poor attendance or performance problems may be counseled to seek rehabilitation from available University or community resources. See the University’s publication “Procedure for Handling Alcohol and Drug Abuse Among Staff Employees” or the local telephone directory for a list of available resources.

7. When notice of a criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring on University property is received, the campus Provost’s office will coordinate compliance with the reporting requirements of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988, and Executive Order 90-5, April 12, 1990, issued by the Governor of Indiana.

8. Each campus Human Resources Office shall maintain and periodically publish for its campus a list of available University and community resources for alcohol or drug abuse assistance or rehabilitation programs. In addition, each campus Human Resources Office shall provide employees with information about the dangers of alcohol or drug abuse in the workplace.

9. Students may obtain information regarding drug or alcohol counseling, treatment, or rehabilitation programs from Indiana University’s Alcohol-Drug Information Center, Student Health Center, Counseling and Psychological Services, or Dean of Students Office.

Criminal Penalties—Alcohol and Drugs

The following information is provided with regard to state and federal criminal penalties related to alcohol and drug possession or use.

Conviction under state and federal laws that prohibit alcohol-related and drug-related conduct can result in fines, confiscation of automobiles and other property, loss of one’s driver’s license, and imprisonment. In addition, licenses to practice in certain professions may be revoked, and many employment opportunities may be barred.

It is impractical to list all the alcohol and drug-related state and federal crimes and penalties. But all persons should be aware that in Indiana any person under 21 who possesses an alcoholic beverage, and any person who provides alcohol to such person, is at risk of arrest. Any person who is intoxicated in public risks arrest. A person convicted of driving while intoxicated may be punished by fine, be jailed, and lose his or her driver’s license. Any selling of alcoholic beverages without a license is illegal.

Possession, or use, distribution, or manufacture, of controlled substances [drugs] illegally can result in arrest and conviction of a drug law violation and:

- fines up to $10,000 (Indiana)
- fines up to $250,000 (federal)
- imprisonment up to 50 years (Indiana)
- imprisonment up to life (federal) and
- confiscation of property.

Health Risks Associated with Alcohol and Controlled Substances [Drugs]

The following information is provided with regard to the health risks caused by the use of alcohol, and by the illegal use of controlled substances [drugs].

- Consumption of more than two average servings of alcohol in several hours can impair coordination and reasoning and make driving unsafe.
- Consumption of alcohol by a pregnant woman can damage the unborn child. A pregnant woman should consult her physician about this risk.
- Regular and heavy alcohol consumption can cause serious damage to liver, nervous and circulatory system, mental disorders, and other health problems.
- Drinking large amounts of alcohol in a short time may quickly produce unconsciousness, coma, and death.
- Use of controlled substances [drugs] can result in damage to health and impairment of physical condition, including:
  - impaired short term memory or comprehension
  - anxiety, delusions, hallucinations
  - loss of appetite resulting in general damage to the user’s health, over a long term
  - A drug-dependent newborn if the mother is a drug user during pregnancy. Pregnant women who use alcohol, drugs, or who smoke should consult their physicians
  - AIDS, as a result of “needle-sharing” among drug users
  - Death from overdose.

The health risks associated with drugs or excessive use of alcohol are many, and are different for different drugs. But all non-prescription use of drugs, and excessive use of alcohol, endangers your health. THERE ARE NO GOOD REASONS FOR USING A DRUG THAT IS NOT PRESCRIBED BY YOUR DOCTOR OR FOR DRINKING TO EXCESS.

Bloomington Campus Calendar Principles

Bloomington Faculty Council Action (November 19, 1991, April 29, 1997)

This statement describes the policies that are implicit in the campus calendar approved by the Bloomington Faculty Council in 1986.

1. The calendar for the academic year shall be composed of two semesters.
2. Each semester shall be preceded by one week for orientation/registration. There shall be an additional break of one week between the end of the second summer session and the beginning of orientation/registration week.
3. The first semester shall contain fourteen weeks and two days of instruction (that is, 72 class days, not counting Saturdays) plus one week (5 exam days) of final examinations. The second semester shall contain fifteen weeks of instruction (that is, 75 class days, not counting Saturdays) plus one week (5 exam days) of final examinations.
4. The standard length of a three-credit-hour course shall be 50 minutes three times a week or 75 minutes twice a week. The break between classes shall be 15 minutes.
5. The first days of classes and the first day of final exams for each semester shall fall on a Monday. The last day of classes shall fall on a Saturday, and the last day of final exams shall fall on a Friday.
6. Thanksgiving Recess shall be four days (Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday), and Spring Recess shall be six days (Monday through Saturday).
7. The beginning of the second semester shall be determined by the day of the week upon which New Year’s Day falls. Classes shall begin on a Monday (in order to have an unbroken week), preceded by a Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday for advising and registration. Therefore, when New Year’s Day falls on a Tuesday, classes shall start on the first Monday in January. When New Year’s Day falls on any other day, classes shall start on the second Monday in January.
8. The break between semesters (that is, between the end of final examinations and the start of classes) shall be three weeks.
9. The Spring Recess shall fall on the week following the ninth week of classes during the second semester.
10. The final examination period for semester courses shall be two hours.
11. The summer session shall be divided into a six-week session and an eight-week session.
12. There shall be no classes on Memorial Day during the first summer session and no classes on the Fourth of July during the second summer session. Classes shall not meet on the preceding Friday when July 4 falls on a Saturday or on the following Monday when July 4 falls on a Sunday.
13. There shall be no special final examination period for the summer sessions.

*By action of the Board of Trustees on January 24, 1997, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day will be observed on the third Monday of January, and classes will not be held on that day.

The Bloomington Campus Calendar and Scheduling Committee shall review these calendar principles annually.

Campus Security Policies

Reporting Procedures

The campus provides several ways to report crimes and related problems. Individuals may contact the IU Police Department whenever they witness criminal activity or feel threatened by potential criminal activity, including sexual offenses. Observations ranging from crimes in progress to suspicious behavior to an open manhole can and should be reported to IUPD. You may contact IUPD at either 855-4111 or 857-4111.
If you are calling about an emergency, dial 911 from any campus phone. Emergency phones at 20 different locations around campus connect directly to the IUPD dispatcher. If the problem is not a matter of public safety nor within the IUPD's primary jurisdiction, the person calling should refer the call to the proper agency. All of the numbers listed here accommodate TDD users who wish to contact IUPD.

Residence halls staff is available 24 hours a day to handle safety or security issues occurring in or near the campus residence centers. They also may be helpful if you wish to report a personal safety incident that has occurred elsewhere on campus. The center desks are open between 8:00 a.m. and midnight. The center desk telephone is forwarded to an on-call staff member when the office is closed.

The residential living areas in the residence hall are locked around the clock. All visitors in these areas must be escorted by a resident. Dining rooms, classrooms, and public lounges are accessible to the public. Additional safety information about the residence halls, including the guest policy, may be found in other campus publications, such as the residence halls handbook and calendar.

Facility Safety and Access Physical Plant staff inspect the campus lighting system every two weeks. Call the Physical Plant Operations Center at 855-8728 to report a broken or otherwise ineffective light. Although the Operations Center is open 24 hours a day, only emergency repairs will be made on evenings or weekends.

Generally, all residence halls are supposed to be locked around the clock. However, there are exceptions to this policy for malfunctions in locks and for emergencies. The Residence Life staff to learn the policy for a specific residence hall. Additional safety information about the residence halls, including the guest policy, may be found in other campus publications, such as the residence halls handbook and calendar.

Access to academic buildings is determined by individual building supervisors; contact the appropriate supervisor for specific information. Generally, however, faculty and staff are available in these buildings during regular business hours, from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. weekdays. Building Services staff, who are easily identified by their tan and brown uniforms, are present in the buildings during many of the remaining hours. You are encouraged to report to them any safety concerns or suggestions, or you may call the Building Services Division of the Physical Plant at 855-3121.

Law Enforcement Authority The IU Police Department coordinates law enforcement and security on the Bloomington campus. All officers are trained and have full police authority. The Bloomington Police Department is the municipal police force for the City of Bloomington. BPD officers respond to off-campus calls, but also may assist IUPD officers with on-campus incidents. Calls to 911 made from campus phones will be received by IUPD, those made from off-campus phones are received by BPD.

Educational Programming Each year near the beginning of the fall semester, the IU Police Department releases data showing crimes reported on the Bloomington campus in the previous year. This information is published in various news media, as well as certain campus publications, such as the Bloomington Chronicle. It is also available on the Internet at the IU Police Department's web site (www.indiana.edu/~iupd). For full definitions, see: http://www.securityoncampus.org/schools/cleryact/definitions.html

Among these are the Sexual Assault Crisis Service, which is staffed 24 hours a day by professional counselors. The service is free to all students, faculty, and staff, as well as other members of the campus community. Its crisis telephone line is 855-5711. The Service provides individual counseling to persons who have been sexually assaulted and need assistance. Support groups are coordinated by the Service, and staff are willing to talk with friends and family of those individuals who have been sexually assaulted. The local community provides other resources for sexual assault victims, including the Middle Way House, Inc. and Bloomington Hospital. Middle Way House provides 24 hour services to victims and survivors of domestic violence, in addition to temporary shelter. The shelter also coordinates educational programs addressing issues related to sexual assault.

The campus administration, through its Dean of Student Life, and the Student Conduct Board, uses several means to coordinate law enforcement and educational programs addressing issues related to sexual assault. The sexual assault education programs are designed to increase awareness about sexual assault and its prevention. The programs are offered to all students, faculty, and staff, and are available in various forms, including workshops, presentations, and educational materials. The programs are offered in conjunction with the Student Conduct Board, the Office of Student Conduct, the Office of Student Life, and the Department of Public Safety.

Indiana University
Bloomington Campus
The Clery Report

Reporting guidelines vary between the Clery Report and the FBI's Uniform Crime Report. Incidents that reportedly occurred on university or student- organization owned properties are counted in this report. For full definitions, see: http://www.securityoncampus.org/schools/cleryact/definitions.html
The central campus is closed to student automobile traffic from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday. Vehicles bearing any valid decal may park in any NON-24 HOUR space from 5 p.m. to 7 a.m. and all day Saturday and Sunday. The "D" and "E" spaces are available to any vehicle from Friday at 5 p.m. to Sunday at 11 p.m.

Metered parking areas marked "Visitor Parking" are not to be used by students, faculty, or staff. Visitors will not be permitted to park in areas reserved for faculty, staff, and students.

Any vehicle in violation of parking regulations or apparently abandoned may be towed without notice and stored at the owner's expense.

The responsibility for finding a legal parking space rests with the motor vehicle operator. The purchase of a decal does not guarantee a parking space.

Certain parking spaces are reserved for the specially designated vehicles of disabled faculty and students. These parking spaces are exclusively assigned for this purpose and vehicles in violation will be towed on the first offense. The international disabled symbol is used for the identification of such spaces.

Ethnic Information Policy

Ethnic information is gathered in compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and is requested in reports required by the U.S. Department of Education. Students may refuse disclosure of this information or request its removal from records without penalty at Franklin Hall 100 during regular business hours.

Extended X (Expanded-FX) Policy

Bloomington Faculty Council Action [May 3, 1994]

The council amended the F/X policy to read:

Any undergraduate student may retake a course for which he/she received a grade below an A during the first 45 hours of coursework. A student may exercise this option for no more than three courses, totaling no more than 10 credits. A student may use this option only once for a given course.

The student's transcript shall record both grades. For the course retaken, only the second grade shall be counted in the determination of the student's grade-point average (GPA). Any GPA calculated in accord with this policy shall be marked with an asterisk denoting that a lower grade has been replaced by a second grade in the course.

Note: This policy was implemented First Semester 2001-02. Courses taken prior to that term do not apply. See Extended X Implementation Policies below. The record notation of an "X" added to the grade of the course excluded from the GPA has been substituted for the asterisk denotation mentioned in the original policy. Some schools may not honor this policy for purposes such as school admission, graduation, and good standing requirements, and there may be other limitations on courses eligible for the GPA exclusion; students should consult with their school or University Division advisers before exercising this option.

Extended X (Amended-FX) Implementation Policies

(April 2001)

The following decisions were made by the Bloomington Faculty Council on March 6 and 20, 2001, with regard to implementation of the new Bloomington campus grade forgiveness policy. A statement of the policy appears above.

1. Only courses attempted during or after the Fall 2001 term will be eligible for replacement under the new policy.
2. Students may replace any course taken prior to or during the term in which their forty-fifth credit hour is earned.
3. All IU coursework and any transferred course credits earned at another institution will be included in calculating the "first forty-five hours."
4. The following grades cannot be replaced under the expanded FX policy:
   1. Only courses attempted during or after the Fall 2001 term will be eligible for replacement under the new policy.
   2. Students may replace any course taken prior to or during the term in which their forty-fifth credit hour is earned.
   3. All IU coursework and any transferred course credits earned at another institution will be included in calculating the "first forty-five hours."
   4. The following grades cannot be replaced under the expanded FX policy:
   5. The following grades cannot be replaced under the expanded FX policy:
   6. GPA credit hours for the replaced course will be removed at the point at which the course is replaced.
   7. Courses repeatable with different content are not eligible for replacement under this policy unless a unit chooses to permit this by means of a specific authorization procedure.
   8. A student may not request reversal after asking for and applying the GPA exclusion.
   9. A student may not replace a grade with a second grade of W, I, R or NC.
10. Students who re-enroll in a course must indicate to the school of their major or to University Division, as appropriate, their intent to apply the GPA exclusion policy to a specific course by the date of automatic withdrawal.

11. Initially, the Extended-X policy will adhere to FX policy (UFC documents 1975, 1976, 1979, 1984, 1987) administrative practice and guidelines regarding exceptional cases, where these are not in conflict with the provisions of the Extended-X Policy nor with these Implementation Policies. A statement of the applicable practices has been compiled and is on file with the Dean of Faculties and with the Office of the Registrar.

12. In initial implementation of the Extended-X policy, as under the FX policy, Bloomington uses the following in honoring the principle that the grade forgiveness policy on the degree granting campus is applicable for each student. Hence, if an IUB student transfers to another campus with more liberal grade replacement policies, IUB will honor requests from that campus, on behalf of the student, to replace an IUB grade that may not be replaceable under IUB policy. Were the student to return to IUB for graduation, however, that course exclusion would not apply.

Graduation Rate
The completion or graduation rate for first-time full-time students (certificate, associate and baccalaureate degree-seekers) entering IU Bloomington may be found at the following Web site: http://onestart.iu.edu. A paper copy of the report will be provided upon request.

Immunization Data Collection Policy
In accordance with the 1995 Indiana Code 20-12-71, “Immunization Requirements at the Postsecondary Level,” all students who attend Indiana University Bloomington for their first major semester during or after First Semester 1995-96 must provide immunization information to the Office of the Registrar. One of the main objectives of this state law is to enable the University to provide a safer and healthier environment for students. The law stipulates that “a student fails to comply . . . by the beginning of the student’s second academic term, the postsecondary institution shall prohibit the student from matriculating in the campus of the postsecondary institution, where applicable, until the requirements are met.” Therefore, students who do not provide the required immunization data will be prevented from registering for the semester or session following their matriculation semester.

In order to be in full compliance with this state requirement, students must provide dates of immunizations for the following diseases: measles/rubeola (requires two immunizations), rubella/german measles, mumps, tetanus and diphtheria (tetanus and diphtheria booster within the last 10 years). Religious exemptions and proof of disease history (measles/rubeola and mumps only) are also considered to be in full compliance with state law. Please note that students filing religious exceptions will be required to leave campus if an outbreak of any listed preventable disease occurs on or near campus. A physician’s signature is required if the student has been immunized and is able to provide the month and year for the required immunizations. However, if medical contraindications exist, a physician’s signature is required to document each specific medical contraindication.

Beginning First Semester 2003-04, the university shall provide detailed information of the risks associated with meningococcal disease and the availability and effectiveness of vaccination to students (or parent if student is under age 18). The student (or parent if student is under age 18) will provide a signature that they have reviewed provided information regarding meningococcal disease or have received the vaccination series. In addition, all new students who are not citizens or residents of the United States must provide documentation that they have been tested for tuberculosis in the United States, the date the test was taken, and the results of the test.

New students, including intercampus transfer students new to the Bloomington campus, are required to complete the immunization form at http://registrar.indiana.edu/immunize/ before the first day of classes.

How to comply:
1. Navigate to the OneStart page: http://onestart.iu.edu. Click the login button.
2. Log in using your Username and Password.
3. Click the Services tab, then Student Self-Service link on the sidebar.
4. Locate the Services and Information section. Click the Immunization Compliance link.

Noncompliance warnings for students who do not respond to the early request for immunization data will be sent to students' official university email address. Registration for the next semester or session will be prevented for students who do not provide this required data to the Office of the Registrar. In order to maintain the confidentiality of medical record information, immunization data provided to other University offices cannot be used to comply with this state mandated requirement.

Questions concerning these requirements for immunization information should be directed to a Service Representative, Office of the Registrar, Franklin Hall 100, (812) 855-0121, registrar@indiana.edu. Also, link to http://registrar.indiana.edu for specific information on immunization requirements and to follow a link that will allow you to record your immunization dates online.

Intercampus Transfer Students
Transferring to Other Indiana University Campuses
Each year many students transfer from one campus of the university to another to continue their studies toward a degree. Few other multi-campus universities are organized in such a way as to accommodate or facilitate these transfers. Credits transferred from one campus of Indiana University to another will be evaluated and accepted in terms which are at least as favorable as credits from other institutions, applying the same criteria used in evaluating external credits.

Students who wish to transfer from any IU campus to another should follow these procedures:
1. Inform your academic adviser of your decision as soon as possible. Degree requirements may vary from one campus to another but if your adviser knows of your plan, your academic program may be designed to meet the requirements of the campus you will eventually attend.
2. Contact the department chairperson (or the designated adviser) at the campus you plan to attend. Discuss your plan and ask about any special procedures. For example, transfers in fine arts must submit portfolios of their work and music transfers must audition.
3. Fill out the appropriate intercampus transfer application located on the web at http://www.iupui.edu/-moveua/.
4. When you arrive on the new campus, contact your designated adviser as soon as possible. Discuss your academic progress to date and the additional course work required for your new degree program.

Nondiscrimination Policy
Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy of Indiana University
Indiana University pledges itself to continue its commitment to the achievement of equal opportunity within the university and throughout American society as a whole. In this regard, Indiana University will recruit, hire, promote, educate, and provide services to persons based upon their individual qualifications. Indiana University prohibits discrimination based on arbitrary considerations of such characteristics as age, color, disability, ethnicity, gender, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

Indiana University shall take affirmative action, positive and extraordinary, to overcome the discriminatory effects of traditional policies and procedures with regard to the disabled, minorities, and women.

Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities and Conduct
The Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities and Conduct issued by Indiana University on August 15, 1997, provides regulations governing actions and interactions of members of the university community. The Code describes the individual rights of the student to include the student’s right to be free of sexual harassment, racial harassment, and harassment based on sexual orientation. Copies of the Code may be obtained from the Dean of Students Office on each of the campuses.

The office receiving the complaint will notify the Office of Affirmative Action, which will serve as a clearing house for all such incidents and will provide investigative procedures.
Indiana University Policy Against Sexual Harassment

Harassment on the basis of sex is a violation of federal and state law. Indiana University does not tolerate sexual harassment of its faculty, staff, or students. Individuals who believe they are victims of sexual harassment, as well as those who believe they have observed sexual harassment, are strongly urged to report such incidents promptly. Indiana University will investigate every sexual harassment complaint in a timely manner and, when there is a finding of sexual harassment, take corrective action to stop the harassment and prevent the misconduct from recurring. The severity of the corrective action, up to and including discharge or expulsion of the offender, will depend on the circumstances of the particular case.

Once a person in a position of authority at Indiana University has knowledge, or should have had knowledge, of conduct constituting sexual harassment, the University could be exposed to liability. Therefore, any administrator, supervisor, manager or faculty member who is aware of sexual harassment and condones it, by action or inaction, is subject to disciplinary action.

A. Definitions

Following federal guidelines, Indiana University defines sexual harassment as follows:

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when:

1. submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment or academic advancement;
2. submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment or academic decisions affecting that individual;
3. such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or learning environment.

B. Application

This University policy is designed to protect all members of the University community. It applies to relationships among peers as well as to superior/subordinate relationships. It also applies to all individuals, regardless of their gender or sexual orientation.

C. Provisions

1. Faculty, staff, and students have the right to raise the issue of sexual harassment. Further harassment against complainers or retaliation against complainers or others who participate in the investigation of a complaint will not be tolerated. Appropriate and prompt disciplinary or remedial action will be taken against persons found to be engaging in such further harassment.
2. The University will deal with reports of sexual harassment in a fair and thorough manner, which includes protecting, to the extent possible and to the extent permitted by law, the privacy and reputational interests of the accusing and accused parties.
3. Education is the best tool for the prevention and elimination of sexual harassment. Each dean, director, department chair, and/or administrative officer is responsible within his/her area of jurisdiction for the implementation of this policy, including its dissemination and explanation.
4. It is the obligation and shared responsibility of all members of the University community to adhere to this policy.

D. Enforcement Principles

Enforcement and implementation of this sexual harassment policy will observe the following principles:

1. Each campus must have procedures—consistent with notions of due process—for implementing this policy including where complaints are made, who investigates complaints, how complaints are resolved, what procedures are available for appeals, and how records are kept.
2. The Campus Affirmative Action Officer shall serve as a resource with regard to interpretation of sexual harassment guidelines.
3. Confidentiality of information relating to investigations of complaints of sexual harassment shall be maintained to the extent practical and appropriate under the circumstances and to the extent permitted by law. Individuals charged with implementing this policy shall share information with regard to given incidents of sexual harassment only with those who have a “need to know” in order to implement this policy and to prevent the misconduct from recurring. The severity of the corrective action, up to and including discharge or expulsion of the offender, will depend on the circumstances of the particular case.
4. Investigations must be conducted promptly and thoroughly.
5. Whether particular actions constitute sexual harassment will be determined from the facts, on a case-by-case basis. The university will look at the record as a whole, as well as the context in which the alleged misconduct occurred.
6. Both the charging party and the respondent will be notified of the outcome of the investigation.
7. In the event it is found that sexual harassment has occurred, corrective action, up to and including discharge or expulsion of the offender, will be taken through the appropriate channels of the university. The corrective action will reflect the severity and persistence of the harassment, as well as the effectiveness of any previous remedial action. In addition, the university will make follow-up inquiries to ensure the harassment has not resumed and the complainant has not suffered retaliation.

Policy on Consensual Relationships

Academic Handbook, 1997, pages 36 and 37:

Relations with Students: With regard to relations with students, the term “faculty” or “faculty member” means all those who teach and/or do research at the University including (but not limited to) tenured and tenure-track faculty, librarians, holders of research or clinical ranks, graduate students with teaching responsibilities, visiting and part-time faculty, and other instructional personnel including coaches, advisors, and counselors.

The University’s educational mission is promoted by professionalism in faculty/student relationships. Professionalism is fostered by an atmosphere of mutual trust and respect. Actions of faculty members and students that harm this atmosphere undermine professionalism and hinder fulfillment of the University’s educational mission. Trust and respect are diminished when those in positions of authority abuse or appear to abuse their power. Those who abuse their power in such a context violate their duty to the University community.

Faculty members exercise power over students, whether in giving them praise or criticism, evaluating them, making recommendations for their further studies, awarding or recommending their future employment, or conferring awards on them. All amorous or sexual relationships between faculty members and students are unacceptable when the faculty member has any professional responsibility for the student. Such situations greatly increase the chances that the faculty member will abuse his or her power and sexual exploitation.

Voluntary consent by the student in such a relationship is suspect, given the fundamental asymmetric nature of the relationship. Moreover, other students and faculty may be affected by such unprofessional behavior because it places the faculty member in a position to favor or advance one student’s interest at the expense of others and implicitly makes obtaining benefits contingent on amorous or sexual favors. Therefore, the University will view it as a violation of the Code of Academic Ethics if faculty members engage in amorous or sexual relations with students for whom they have professional responsibility, as defined in number 1 or 2 below, even when both parties have consented or appear to have consented to the relationship. Such professional responsibility encompasses both instructional and non-instructional contexts.

1. Relationships in the Instructional Context. A faculty member shall not have an amorous or sexual relationship, consensual or otherwise, with a student who is enrolled in a course being taught by the faculty member or whose performance is being supervised or evaluated by the faculty member.

2. Relationships outside the Instructional Context. A faculty member should be careful to distance himself or herself from any decisions that may reward or penalize a student with whom he or she has or has had an amorous or sexual relationship, even outside the instructional context, especially when the faculty member and student are in the same academic unit or in units that are allied academically.

Personnel Policies for Professional Staff, (policy 2.2, page 12):

Consensual romantic relationships

It is in the interest of Indiana University to provide clear direction to all employees about the risks associated with consensual romantic or sexual relationships between members of the university community where a conflict of interest between the parties exist or may exist.

Conflicts of interest may arise when relationships occur between and among employees, students, and prospective employees. This policy and ethical principles may reward or penalize a student with whom he or she has or has had an amorous or sexual relationship, even outside the institutional context, especially when the faculty member and student are in the same academic unit or in units that are allied academically.

These same principles apply to consensual romantic or sexual relationships and require, at a minimum, that appropriate arrangements be made for objective decision making. Additionally, in the event of a charge of sexual harassment, the university will give very critical scrutiny to any defense based upon consent when the facts establish that a power differential existed within the relationship.

Whenever a conflict of interest occurs, or may occur, because of a consensual, romantic relationship, it is the employee’s responsibility to tell the immediate supervisor about the relationship. If the relationship involves one’s immediate supervisor, then the employee should go to the next level of management. The next level of management is responsible for making arrangements to eliminate or solve any conflict or possible conflict.
To receive an accommodation under the ADA, employees must file an application with the Accommodation Specialist (within Human Resources Management). Employees are permitted to make the request on university time, but they must first request release time from their supervisor. Employees may be accompanied by a union representative or a representative from the Bloomington Professional Council when they meet with the Accommodation Specialist. During the initial meeting with the Accommodation Specialist, two things will be accomplished:

- The Accommodation Specialist will determine what documentation from a licensed professional is required to support the employee's request for accommodation.
- The responsibilities of the university and the employee throughout the process will be clarified.

After reviewing the documentation and the facts of each request, the Accommodation Specialist will determine if the employee is eligible for accommodations under the ADA.

The Accommodation Specialist will review the marginal and essential functions of the job, the functional limitations of the disability, and the reasonableness of an accommodation. The Accommodation Specialist will then facilitate a discussion with the supervisor/unit head/dean and the employee to determine what accommodations may be reasonable.

The Accommodation Specialist may seek advice from third party experts when necessary. Medical documentation shall be retained by only the Accommodation Specialist and shall be kept confidential.

It is the responsibility of the Accommodation Specialist to determine the reasonable accommodation in a particular case after reviewing all the facts. The Accommodation Specialist will outline the process for providing the accommodation verbally and in writing to the employee and the department.

The employee is responsible for contacting the Accommodation Specialist if reasonable accommodations are not implemented in an effective and timely manner. The Accommodation Specialist will work with the employee and the department to resolve disagreements regarding the recommended accommodation.
Accommodations for Religious Observances

Bloomington Faculty Council Action
(Approved February 15, 2000)

Introduction
It is the policy of Indiana University, as it is also federal law, that instructors must reasonably accommodate students who want to observe their religious holidays at times when academic requirements conflict with those observances. Past practice has been to circulate a memo to faculty and instructors at the beginning of the fall semester, in order to alert them to the need to schedule exams and other requirements around the holidays or to make an accommodation for those students who request alternate arrangements because of their religious observances. This practice has not been effective; each year, especially during the fall semester, Indiana University receives many complaints of non-compliance. Therefore, the Bloomington Faculty Council Affirmative Action Committee and the Bloomington Campus Calendar Committee recommend adoption of the following policy and procedures.

Policy
Indiana University respects the right of all students to observe their religious holidays and will make reasonable accommodation, upon request, for such observances.

Procedures
1. The Dean of the Faculties Office will prepare a list of dates for the major religious holidays (as specified by leaders of the local religious communities). This list will be included each semester in the Schedule of Classes along with this policy and with a note to the effect that students wanting accommodations for observance of other religious holidays should contact their instructors. The Dean of the Faculties Office will send out, well in advance of any given semester, the dates of those same holidays, with the added information that detailed descriptions of the major holidays and of what is or may be involved in the observance of them is available on the IU web pages. The Dean of the Faculties Office will write regularly to the various deans and chairs, indicating that they, in turn, are to inform the faculty (including associate instructors) under their supervision concerning this policy and of the importance of observing it. The Dean of the Facilities Office will alert department chairs and scheduling officers to religious holidays at least one year in advance so that they can avoid scheduling examinations for multi-section classes on religious holidays.
2. If a conflict with a religious observance exists, a student must make a request for a reasonable accommodation for that observance by the end of the second week of the course. The request is to be in writing. The Dean of the Faculties Office will develop a standardized form to be used for this purpose, and copies of that form will be made widely available. The form is available for printing or downloading at http://www.indiana.edu/~dean/ac/holidays.htm#acc.
3. The instructor and the student should discuss what a reasonable accommodation should include in a given case. Generally, it is insufficient to require a student to forgo taking an exam or doing some other major assignment even if the instructor agrees to average the remaining exams or other assignments. The student must be given the opportunity to do appropriate make-up work that is intrinsically no more difficult than the original exam or assignment.
4. If the instructor and student agree on the accommodation, the plan should be carried out.
5. If after discussion there is no consensus on the accommodation, either party or both should seek the advice of the Dean of the Faculties Office.
6. If after seeking such advice the student and the instructor are still not in agreement, the student has the right to appeal the decision to the Dean of the Faculties. The Dean of the Faculties will confer with both the instructor and the student and may seek advice from anyone else that could provide helpful information. The Dean of the Faculties will then make a determination concerning the appropriate accommodation.
7. Either the instructor or the student may appeal the decision to the Office of Affirmative Action within ten business days of the determination by the Dean of the Faculties.

Recommendations
1. We recommend that the policy and procedure above be printed in a revised version of the Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Conduct and, perhaps, elsewhere as well.
2. All instructors are encouraged to include on the syllabus and to announce at the beginning of the semester the policy and procedures as it applies to religious holidays.
3. We recommend that orientation programs for new students inform incoming students about this policy and urge them to check for conflicts before the deadline for informing their instructors. This is particularly important for foreign students.
Religious Holidays

Here is the website that provides a list of selected major religious holidays in the forthcoming years: http://www.indiana.edu/~deanfac/rel_hol_cal.html.

There are links for additional information on religious holidays, cultural calendars, and interfaith calendars.

Note: Students wanting accommodations for observance of other religious holidays should contact their instructors as indicated in the procedures section of the policies stated at this website of the Office of Academic Affairs and Dean of the Faculties: http://www.indiana.edu/~deanfac/holidays.html.

These Rules shall take effect February 1, 1974, provided, that no person properly classified as a resident student before February 1, 1974, shall be adversely affected by this Rule, if he or she attended the university before that date and, while he or she continues to meet the requirements of this Rule, shall not be adversely affected by this Rule.

1. “Residence” as the term or any of its variations (e.g., “resided”), as used in the context of these Rules, means the place where an individual has his or her permanent home, at which he or she remains when not called elsewhere for labor, studies, or other temporary purposes, and to which he or she returns in seasons of repose. It is the place a person has voluntarily fixed as a permanent habitation for himself or herself with an intent to remain in such place for an indefinite period. A person at any one time has but one residence, and a residence cannot be lost until another is gained.

a. A person entering the state from another state or country does not at that time acquire residence for the purpose of these Rules, but except as provided in Rule 2[c], such person must be a resident for 12 months in order to qualify as a resident student for fee purposes.

b. Physical presence in Indiana for the predominant purpose of attending a college, university, or other institution of higher education, shall not be counted in determining the 12-month period of residence; nor shall absence from Indiana for such purpose deprive a person of resident student status.

2. A person shall be classified as a “resident student” if he or she has continuously resided in Indiana for at least 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the first scheduled day of classes of the semester in which the student is classified as a resident student.

a. The residence of an unencumbered person under 21 years of age follows that of the parents or of a legal guardian who has actual custody of such person or administers the property of such person.

b. In the case of divorce or separation, if both parents meet the residence requirements, such person will be considered a resident.

c. If such person comes from another state or country for the predominant purpose of attending the University, he or she shall not be admitted to resident student status upon the basis of the status of a guardian in fact, except upon appeal to the Standing Committee on Residence in each case.

d. Such person may be classified as a resident student without meeting the 12-month residence requirement within Indiana if his or her presence in Indiana results from the establishment by his or her parents of their residence within the state and if he or she proves that the move was predominantly for reasons other than to enable such person to become entitled to the status of “resident student.”

e. A person once properly classified as a resident student shall be deemed to remain a resident student so long as remaining continuously enrolled in the university until such person’s degree shall have been earned, subject to the provisions of subparagraph (d) above.

3. The foreign citizenship of a person shall not be a factor in determining resident student status if such person has legal capacity to remain permanently in the United States.

4. A person classified as a nonresident student may show that he or she is exempt from paying the nonresident fee by clear and convincing evidence that he or she was a resident [see Rule 1 above] of Indiana for the 12 months prior to the first scheduled day of classes of the semester in which his or her status is to be changed. Such a student will be allowed to present his or her evidence only after the expiration of 12 months from the residence qualifying date, i.e., the date upon which the student commenced the 12-month period for residence. The following factors will be considered relevant in evaluating a requested change in a student’s nonresident status and in evaluating whether his or her physical presence in Indiana is for the predominant purpose of attending a college, university, or other institution of higher education. The existence of one or more of these factors will not result in the designation of resident student status, nor shall the non-existence of one or more require a finding of nonresident student status. All factors will be considered in combination, and ordinarily resident student status will not result from the doing of acts which are required or routine done by sojourners in the state or which are merely auxiliary to the fulfillment of educational purposes.

a. The residence of a student’s parents or guardians.

b. The situs of the source of the student’s income.

c. To whom a student pays his or her taxes, including property taxes.

d. The state in which a student’s automobile is registered.

e. The state issuing the student’s driver’s license.

f. The residence claimed by the student on loan applications, federal income tax returns, and other documents.

g. The place of the student’s summer employment, attendance at summer school, or vacation.

h. Ownership of property in Indiana and outside of Indiana.

i. The residence claimed by the student on loan applications, federal income tax returns, and other documents.

j. The place of the student’s summer employment, attendance at summer school, or vacation.

k. The student’s future plans including committed place of future employment or future studies.
1. Admission to a licensed profession in Indiana.
2. Membership in civic, community and other organizations in Indiana or elsewhere.
3. All present and intended future connections or contacts outside of Indiana.
4. The facts and documents pertaining to the person's past and existing status as a student.
5. The fact that a person pays taxes and votes in the state does not in itself establish residence, but will be considered as hereinbefore set forth.
6. The registrar or the person fulfilling those duties on each campus shall classify each student as resident or nonresident and may require proof of all relevant facts. The burden of proof is upon the student making a claim to a resident student status.
7. A Standing Committee on Residence shall be appointed by the president of the university, and shall include two students from among such as may be nominated by the student body presidents of one or more of the campuses of the university. If fewer than four are nominated, the president may appoint from among students not nominated.
8. A student who is not satisfied by the determination of the registrar has the right to lodge a written appeal with the Standing Committee on Residence within 30 days of receipt of written notice of the registrar's determination, which committee shall review the appeal in a fair manner and shall afford to the student a personal hearing upon written request. A student may be represented by counsel at such hearing. The committee shall report its determination to the student in writing. If no appeal is taken within the time provided herein, the decision of the registrar shall be final and binding.
9. The Standing Committee on Residence is authorized to classify a student as a resident student, though not meeting the specific requirements herein set forth, if such student's situation presents unusual circumstances and the individual classification is within the general scope of these Rules. The decision of the committee shall be final and shall be deemed equivalent to a decision of the Trustees of Indiana University.
10. A student or prospective student who shall knowingly provide false information or shall refuse to provide or shall conceal information for the purpose of improperly achieving resident student status shall be subject to the full range of penalties, including expulsion, provided for by the university, as well as to such other punishment which may be provided for by law.
11. A student who does not pay additional monies which may be due because of his or her classification as a nonresident student within 30 days after demand, shall thereupon be indefinitely suspended.
12. A student or prospective student who fails to request resident student status within a particular semester or session and to pursue a timely appeal (see rules 3(a) and 5) shall be deemed to have waived any alleged overpayment of fees for that semester or session.
13. If any provision of these rules or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of these rules which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of these rules are severable.

Rules 2(b) and 2(c) apply only to unemancipated persons under 21 years of age. Invocation of the provision in Rule 2(a) that applies to cases of divorce or separation requires appropriate legal documentation.

NOTE: Effective Fall 2007, students with immigration statuses which permit residence within a particular semester or session and to pursue a timely appeal (see rules 3(a) and 5) shall be deemed to have waived any alleged overpayment of fees for that semester or session. Continuing eligibility to remain classified as a resident student for fee-paying purposes depends upon the continued maintenance of eligible immigration status. Contact the registrar's office for more information.

Voter Registration

In compliance with certain federal and state requirements, Indiana University Bloomington is making self-mailing voter registration forms available on campus as well as providing information about links to electronic sites where such forms can be found.

The sites on campus for securing the self-mailing forms include:
- Office of the Registrar, Franklin Hall 100
- Herman B Wells Library, West Tower, 1st floor, Reference Desk

Forms can also be obtained at the following offices:
- County Voter Registration Office
- Public Libraries
- State License Branches
- Certain City, Town and Township Offices

Voter Registration Forms are also available on line at the Election Assistance Commission Website (www.eac.gov) and the Indiana Secretary of State website. To download and print the form you will need Adobe Acrobat Reader®.

Registration Deadline: Applications must be postmarked (or hand delivered to your county voter registration office) no later than 29 days before the next election.

For more information on registering to vote in the State of Indiana visit the Indiana Secretary of State web site.

Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997

Education-Related Federal Income Tax Credits

The Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997 offers two nonrefundable federal income tax credits for qualified education expenses paid each calendar year. This act provides for a maximum tax credit of $1,650 per student for the Hope Scholarship credit (as adjusted for inflation beginning tax year 2002) and a maximum tax credit of $2,000 per family for the Lifetime Learning Credit after January 1, 2003. Refer to IRS Publication 970 for more information about the associated eligibility requirements.

Beginning in calendar year 1998, all eligible education institutions are required to submit an information return [Form 1098-T, Tuition Payment Statement] to the student and to the IRS. The information filed with the IRS must contain the student’s Social Security Number (SSN). Since Indiana University does not use a student’s SSN exclusively as his/her identification number (SIDN), every student must complete Form W-9S [Request for Student or Borrower Social Security Number] each calendar year in which the student is enrolled. This form is available electronically through OneStart Self-Service (http://onestart.iu.edu) and can also be obtained from Financial Management Support, Customer Service, Poplars 525, (812) 855-0375.
Services

Office of Admissions

www.admit.indiana.edu

300 N. Jordan Avenue, Bloomington, IN 47405-1106

Telephone (812) 855-0661

International Admissions (812) 855-4306

intladm@indiana.edu

Freshmen  Prospective freshmen are strongly encouraged to apply for admission online at www.admit.indiana.edu. Students may request a copy of the Undergraduate Viewbook using the online information request page at www.admit.indiana.edu/request, or by contacting the Office of Admissions. The Viewbook provides information about many academic offerings and the excellent cultural, recreational, athletic, and social opportunities at Indiana University.

Visits to campus can easily be arranged online at www.admit.indiana.edu/visit.

Naturally nothing replaces a visit to our campus. The Admissions Office is open Monday-Friday throughout the year and on many Saturdays during the fall and spring semesters. Campus tours are available on those days when the office is open. Please arrange your visit several weeks in advance.

Transfer Students  Prospective transfer students should apply online at www.admit.indiana.edu.

Credit Transfer Agreements  Current Indiana University undergraduate students who wish to transfer credits from another accredited U.S. or overseas institution can see how these credits will transfer by using the Credit Transfer Service. This service can be accessed on the web at http://cts.admissions.indiana.edu.

Using the Credit Transfer Service is not a requirement for transfer of credit. Students need only have an official transcript sent to the Office of Admissions once the coursework has been completed to have the courses evaluated for transfer credit. The transfer of credit is subject to final approval by the dean of the school in which the student will earn an IU degree.

Intercampus Transfers  Undergraduates enrolled in a degree program at another IU campus who wish to transfer to the Bloomington campus should not reapply for admission. Instead, follow the appropriate procedure by completing an intercampus transfer application available at http://www.admit.indiana.edu. Choose the ‘transfer’ link and select ‘intercampus transfer’.

International Students  Any international student (graduate or undergraduate) applying for admission to a degree program at Indiana University must submit the following:

1. Appropriate Application for Admission. Freshmen and transfer students are encouraged to apply online at www.admit.indiana.edu. Graduates who have prior study at another institution may submit their International Student Application Form online at www.admit.indiana.edu.

2. Other supporting materials as outlined on the Office of Admissions Website.

Graduate Students  All persons wishing to pursue a degree at the graduate level must be admitted by the appropriate department, division, program, or school. Admission is made to a particular area for a particular degree, and no student shall be considered a candidate for a degree without having been admitted to work toward that degree.

Application forms are available from the following schools of the University: University Graduate School; School of Library and Information Science; Schools of Business; Education; Informatics; Journalism; Music; Law; Medicine; Nursing; Optometry; Social Work; Health, Physical Education, and Recreation; and Public and Environmental Affairs.

Indiana University Bloomington Evaluation Services and Testing (BEST)

Evaluation Services and Testing (BEST)

Franklin Hall 014, Ground Level

Telephone (812) 855-1595

Computer-Based Test Registration (812) 856-0684

http://www.indiana.edu/~best

Hours: Monday-Friday, 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. and by appointment.

Indiana University Bloomington Evaluation Services and Testing (BEST) is a unit of Instructional Support Services, administers a wide variety of national, institutional, and computer-based standardized exams in conjunction with national test organizations and Indiana University academic departments. Numerous instructional support services are also available to faculty.

National testing includes paper-and-pencil undergraduate/graduate admissions exams [ACT, GRE Subject Tests, LSAT, MAT, PCAT, PRAXIS PPST, SAT Reasoning and Subject Tests], as well as professional licensure and certification exams (Certified Paraoptometric Exams, CHES, MPRE, Optometry National Boards, PRAXIS Series Exams). Registration information is available at BEST during regular office hours. Information on the following exams may be obtained by visiting the office indicated: LSAT and MCAT [Health Professions/Prelaw Information Center, Maxwell Hall 010], and MPRE [Law School Dean of Students Office, Law Building 024].

Computer-based testing, under the auspices of Educational Testing Service and Prometric, is available for selected graduate/professional admissions and professional licensure exams. Computerized versions of the GRE General Test, Medical College Admission Test, and PRAXIS I: Pre-Professional Skills Test in Reading, Mathematics, and Writing can be taken by appointment during regular business hours. Unlike paper and pencil exams, there are no national test dates or registration forms. Registration information and fee payment are collected during the appointment process. BEST also administers the computer-based MCAT and iBT TOEFL on established national test dates. These exams require online registration with and fee payment made directly to the appropriate national testing organization. Candidates for all computer-based exams should make appointments as far in advance of the desired test date as possible. Testing by appointment is generally offered Monday through Friday, except university holidays. Testing on other days may be offered as needed. Appointments can be made and further information obtained by calling (812) 856-0684.

Institutional testing consists of foreign language placement and exemption exams in French, Spanish, German, Latin (undergraduate only), and Italian (undergraduate only). These tests measure one’s level of proficiency in a language studied previously. At the undergraduate level, test scores provide a basis for placing students into the most appropriate level of language course work. At the graduate level, students may satisfy University Graduate School requirements for language study through superior exam performance.

Additionally, BEST supports the academic mission of Indiana University through scoring and analyzing classroom tests, offering web-based assessment services for faculty, administering a student rating system of teaching and instruction, and consulting with faculty on survey development and assessment issues.

Those wishing to learn more about BEST and its services are invited to view the internet site above and/or to call the office for assistance.

Office of the Bursar

Franklin Hall 011

601 E. Kirkwood Avenue

bursar@indiana.edu

(812) 855-2636

Hours: Monday-Friday, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Students having questions about payment of fees should refer to the General Financial Information section in this publication for specific amounts or contact the office by e-mail at bursar@indiana.edu or at (812) 855-2636.

Students who wish to have all or a portion of their fees refunded should follow the drop/add procedures outlined in this publication. [Note: Students withdrawing from all courses must follow the Withdrawal from the University procedures. Complete withdrawals will not be processed through schedule adjustment procedures.]

Disability Services for Students

www.indiana.edu/~iubdss

The Office of Disability Services for Students coordinates services and referrals for students with disabilities.

Academic accommodations and other services are determined on an individual basis as supported by documented need. Accommodations and services available to qualified students include, but are not limited to, letters to faculty; test accommodations such as extended time, readers, or scribes; note takers; recorded texts; interpreters for the deaf; accessibility information; accessible transportation within the campus area; assistance improving study skills; and referral to other campus and community resources.

For more information, contact: Disability Services for Students, Franklin Hall 006, Bloomington, IN 47405; call (812) 855-7578, or visit our web site at www.indiana.edu/~iubdss. Office Hours are Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Veterans Support Services

Veterans who are eligible for benefits under the GI Bill should check with the office if they fall under one of these categories: Chapter 33 Post 9/11 GI Bill; Chapter 30 GI Bill (Active duty Education Assistance Program); Chapter 31-Disabled veterans qualified for Vocational Rehabilitation; Chapter 32-Veterans who participated in the Contributor Education Program (VEAP); Chapter 35-Children of deceased, 100 percent disabled, or former POW veterans; Chapter 1606-Selected Reserve Educational Assistance Program, and Chapter 1607-Reserve and National Guard who have been called to active duty.

Libraries

Herman B Wells Library: 10th Street & Jordan Avenue [812] 855-0100 liber@indiana.edu www.libraries.iub.edu

The IUB Libraries, a campuswide system with a shared collection of more than six million volumes on a full range of services designed to help students succeed in their academic goals.

With 18 locations, including the world-renowned Lilly Library for rare books and manuscripts, the IUB Libraries support all academic disciplines on campus. The largest and most visible of these libraries is the Herman B Wells Library, which houses research collections, government documents, journals, films, and DVDs. Branch libraries offer specialized materials such as music scores and digital music files, geologic maps, and fine arts books. As information experts, librarians help students take full advantage of these diverse resources. Stop by any library or visit the Web site for one-on-one help.

Located in the West Tower of the Wells Library, the Information Commons is a 24/7 technology-intensive learning center where students can work on class assignments from start to finish. A partnership of the IUB Libraries and University Information Technology Services, the IC fosters student learning by offering more than 330 workstations for individuals or groups, a multimedia production lab, wireless networking, adaptive technology, and technological support. Librarians there can help students get started on an assignment or refine their research skills. Floors of the West Tower accommodate different needs: find space to study quietly, meet with groups, practice presentations, or use technology.

Trustworthy information is available online through the databases, electronic journals, books, and images selected, digitized, or purchased by the IUB Libraries to support the teaching, learning, and research goals of the university. IU students, faculty and staff can access hundreds of databases, including IUCAT, the IU Libraries’ online catalog, from the Libraries’ web site (www.libraries.iub.edu). This site also provides interactive tutorials, library fact sheets and database guides, as well as information about the entire library system including resources, hours, workshops, help sessions and special events.

If you have questions of any kind, seek help from the information experts at the IUB Libraries. Visit a library, call [812] 855-0100, or go to www.libraries.iub.edu.

Career Services

The Career Development Center and Arts & Sciences Career Services

Hours: Monday-Friday 8 a.m.-5 p.m.
625 North Jordan [10th & Jordan]
www.indiana.edu/~career [812] 855-5234

The Career Development Center provides comprehensive career planning to over 38,000 IU students. These career services include career advising and drop-in advising, assessment inventories, career fairs, career panels, graduate school application preparation, an extensive career resource library, and listings for internships, part-time, work-study, and summer positions. First-year and sophomore students may enroll in Q294: Basic Career Development, an eight week, two credit course, which assists students with the development of an effective plan for post-graduate success.

Deciding on a career is one of the most important decisions a student will make, and the staff at the Career Development Center and Arts & Sciences Career Services are dedicated to providing students with a multitude of experiences and resources that will enable them to make informed career decisions.

Kelley School of Business

Undergraduate Career Services Office (UCSO), Business P100, 855-5317 Help Desk and Career Resources Lab (P100) Monday-Friday 8 a.m.-5 p.m. ucsd.indiana.edu

The UCSO serves more than 4,000 student registrants each year and coordinates recruiting activities for more than 300 employers who schedule over 1,000 on-campus interview schedules. Although geared for Kelley School of Business students, non-business students can participate by completing the appropriate classes that are required of all business undergraduates. All sophomores and juniors seeking internship interviews must enroll and complete Business X220, “Career Perspectives,” at the Bloomington campus. Juniors and seniors seeking full-time employment must enroll and complete Business X420, “Career Planning and Placement,” at the Bloomington campus. All students are required to submit resumes in Microsoft Word format.

In addition to the traditional on-campus interview program, we strive to bring students and employers together in informational and non-interview settings. These efforts take place through a variety of special programs including career fairs, roundtable internship fairs, off-campus job listings, corporate presentations, corporate lectures, web resume books, virtual job fairs, and other specialized events.

Complete details can be found at the UCSO website: http://ucso.indiana.edu.

School of Education

IU Education Careers, W. W. Wright Education Building 1000, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. M-F; 856-8506

The IUEC (1) assists registrants in locating teaching, administrative, special service positions in schools, colleges, universities, and as appropriate in business industry, and governmental agencies; (2) assists registrants with the development of an employment credential and upon request sends that credential to prospective employers and other eligible agencies; (3) provides career counseling and placement services for students and alumni seeking such assistance; (4) conducts research concerning supply and demand and employment trends, issues, and procedures; (5) assists employers in finding the better qualified candidates for vacant positions in their respective institutions and agencies; (6) sponsors on-campus recruiting activities for education students and, (7) conducts a class [M202] regarding employment strategies.

Any individual who has earned a degree from IU or who has completed 12 hours of credit and is a currently enrolled student at IU may register for placement assistance. The IUEC web site is: http://education.indiana.edu/~careers. There is no fee for registration, updating the placement file, or for receiving career development services. The placement year begins October 1 and ends September 30.

The staff encourages students to complete their online placement registration early in the placement year since educational employers request formal credentials as a part of the employment process. Students are encouraged to register early in the year they will become available for employment.

Placement counselors are available to advise students in all aspects of the job search process. Assistance is provided in resume development and in helping each student organize, plan, and conduct a successful employment campaign.

Office of the Registrar

Hours of Service: 9 a.m.-4 p.m. (Monday through Friday)
Telephone: (812) 855-0121
General Email: registrar@indiana.edu
Registration Email: reghelp@indiana.edu http://registrar.indiana.edu
http://onestart.iu.edu

General Information
Information regarding the Release of Student Information Policy, registration, and drop/add deadlines and procedures, and other general information is available in the Enrollment and Student Academic Information bulletin (See index).

Student academic record information not found in the Enrollment and Student Academic Information bulletin can be obtained by contacting the Office of the Registrar, Franklin Hall, 855-0121.

Comments or questions regarding the planning, management, and evaluation of enrollment or the Enrollment and Student Academic Information bulletin should be directed to the Office of the Registrar, Franklin Hall 100, 855-0121.

Certification/Verification
At press time, an alternative means of providing enrollment certification was under discussion. Please refer to the Office of the Registrar website at http://registrar.indiana.edu/ enrollverifi.shtml for current procedures regarding enrollment verifications for loan deferments, insurance companies, or other student benefit program organizations. Academic record information available for verification may include prior and/or current enrollment, enrollment status, GPA, and final degree conferred.

Enrollment verifications will not be issued to students who have outstanding financial obligations , including past due accounts with the Bursar (812) 855-2636, Student Loan Administration (812) 855-4511, Dean of Students/Greek Housing (812) 855-4311, or Student Ethics (812) 855-4463. If you have a past due balance with any of these offices, there will be a “hold” on your record and we will not be able to issue your enrollment verification. Please contact these offices for clearance before submitting an enrollment verification request.

 The exception to this rule is enrollment verifications required for student loan deferments.

“Public information,” which includes semesters enrolled, full/half-time status, degree verification, and address information may be requested by phone (812) 855-0256. According to federal law and IU policy, we must obtain a student’s signature before we can release “private information” such as grades, GPA, good academic standing, and class schedule.

Change of Name
Any student whose name has been legally changed should report to the Office of the Registrar, Franklin Hall 100, to file a change of name form. This change will be reflected on the student’s academic record and diploma, once processed, notification of a name change will be sent to the student’s school [and major department for students in the College of Arts and Sciences or University Graduate School].

NOTE: If a student is also an employee, a name change will need to be submitted to Human Resources. Academic employees should submit their change to Faculty Records.

Change of Address
Any student whose local* (Bloomington area) address or telephone, or permanent student home (Stdt home) address or telephone number has changed should immediately report that change of address.

Exception: students living in the Halls of Residence or university housing should not update their Local address. This information will be maintained by the university.

There are several options for reporting the change:

- you may access OneStart at http://onestart.iu.edu and update your address electronically. From the Services page, click Student Self-Service, and then the Go to Student Center link in the Student Center box. Scroll down to the Personal Information section to locate your address.
- you may submit the change by e-mail to: REGR-Address@indiana.edu
- you may change your address during your registration session
- you may report the change in person to Franklin Hall 100
- you may submit the change in writing to: Office of the Registrar, Franklin Hall 111. Be sure to include your name, as it appears on your record, and your student identification number.
- or you may report the change by fax: (812) 855-3311.

If you have any questions, you may call the Office of the Registrar at 855-0121.

Note: If a student is also an employee, there will be an employee home (EmpI home) address as well. Changes to that address will need to be submitted to Human Resources. Academic employees should submit their changes to Faculty Records.

Item | Mailing Addresses | When Mailed (approx.)
---|-----------------|------------------
Enrollment and Student Academic Information bulletin | Local | 12-20 weeks prior to the next semester
Current Enrollment Problems | Local | throughout the semester or summer sessions
Diplomas | Student Home | 10 weeks after final degree is awarded

Note also that student home (Stdt home) address is the only address reflected on the student’s permanent records.

Final Grades
Final grades will be available via OneStart as they are submitted by the faculty and posted to your record. To view your grades from OneStart:

- Select the Student Self Service link from the left margin of the main Services page.
- Select SIS Student Center
- Under the blue Academics bar, click on the My Academics and Grades link.
- Under Term Information, click the View Grades link.
- If prompted, select the appropriate term. Scroll to the bottom of the page and click the yellow Continue button.

Please note that your semester and cumulative grade point averages will not be available until the grades are officially posted to the transcript (see Official Calendar in this publication). Grades are available via OneStart at any time, except for 5:00 a.m. to 6:00 a.m. each morning, Monday through Saturday, and 12:01 a.m. to 8:00 a.m. on Sunday.

The following grades are not considered in computing semester or cumulative grade averages:

FX Denotes an undergraduate level course originally failed and subsequently reattempted during or after first semester 1976-77. The course and assigned grade from the re-enrollment are shown as an additional line entry on the permanent academic record and the grade is computed in the cumulative grade-point average.

Incomplete Effective first semester 1977-78. Incomplete grades will be automatically changed to F after one calendar year unless the course instructor has submitted a grade earlier, or the student’s dean authorizes an adjustment of the one year period in exceptional circumstances.
Students wishing to appeal their residence classification or who have classified as either a resident or nonresident student for fee-paying purposes should first review the regulations governing residence classification. Every student who attends Indiana University is classified as resident or nonresident, and a student's fee status is based on that classification. Residence Classification.

Pass/Fail Option

The pass/fail option permits graduate and undergraduate students to enroll in a course and receive a grade of P or F. Pass-fail option courses are normally limited to electives. The responsibility of approval, as well as special regulations affecting the option, rests with the dean of the student's school or division—under procedures which the school or division establishes. Instructors of undergraduate students are not notified of students registering for this option. A grade of P cannot be subsequently changed to a grade of A, B, C, or D. R Deferred (effective second semester 1976-77) The grade R (deferred grade) used on the final grade report indicates that the nature of the course is such that the work of the student can be evaluated only after two or more terms. S Satisfactory (entire section graded S or F). W Withdrawn-Passing. Used to indicate withdrawal while passing or withdrawal during the automatic W withdrawal period. Effective second semester 1974-75 through second summer session 1995, indicates such withdrawals processed after the official drop and add period. Effective beginning first semester 1995-96, indicate such withdrawals processed after the first week of classes. X Passed Without Grade (discontinued 1965; treated as Satisfactory)

GPA Calculations

Semester and cumulative grade-point average (GPA) calculations will appear on OneStart (once grades are official) and on the official Indiana University academic record as maintained by the Office of the Registrar. Students should note that a cumulative GPA and hours calculations as applied to degree requirements and graduation are maintained by the offices of the deans and recorders of the student's school and may differ from those appearing on the university record. Students should consult the student records office of their school for all questions pertaining to degree hours and degree GPA.

Pass/Fail Option

See index for references to further information.

Residence Classification

Every student who attends Indiana University is classified as either a resident or nonresident student for fee-paying purposes. Students who wish to appeal their residence classification or who have questions about their classification should first review the Rules Determining Resident and Nonresident Student Status for Indiana University Fee Purposes contained in this publication and then contact the Office of the Registrar, Franklin Hall 100, 855-2464.

Students returning to Indiana University after an absence of twelve or more consecutive months will need to provide additional information to the Office of the Registrar in order to clarify their residence status for fee-paying purposes. This information concerns employment, residential addresses and enrollment at other institutions of higher education during the period since their last semester enrolled on any campus of Indiana University. Following registration for each session, a residence audit of the enrollment files will identify returning students. An e-mail request will be sent to those returning students who have not yet submitted the electronic Residence Classification Form for Fee-Paying Purposes at Indiana University.

Room Scheduling

Any departmental secretaries, faculty members, etc., who wish to reserve a classroom for testing purposes, review periods, help sessions, etc., should contact their departmental scheduling officer. Scheduling officers [members of departments without scheduling officers] should then contact the Office of the Registrar, Franklin Hall 235, 855-2489 by phone or by mail as appropriate.

Reservations for fall term will be processed by the Office of the Registrar beginning Wednesday, May 6, 2009 (after fall term registration). Reservations for fall term final examination week [December 14-18] will be processed beginning Wednesday, December 2, 2009.

In addition, any student wishing to schedule a classroom for a University-related activity should first contact the Student Activities Office, 855-4311, Indiana Memorial Union 371, to obtain a space application form. After this form has been obtained, the student should bring it to the Office of the Registrar, Franklin Hall 235.

Student Directory Exclusion

All students have the option of excluding their local address, student home [StH home] address, or telephone numbers from the Bloomington Campus Student Telephone Directory. This option can be exercised by filling out the appropriate form at the Office of the Registrar, Franklin Hall 100, by the end of the first week of classes. This information will be excluded every semester after the form is filed, or until the student notifies the Office of the Registrar, in writing, to withdraw the exclusion.

Transcripts are not issued to students if they have outstanding financial obligations to the University.

Undergraduate Class Standing

Undergraduate class standing is determined by the number of hours completed in a student's current program.

Junior: 56-85
Senior: 86 and higher

University Ceremonies—Release of Student Information

Invitations to select University ceremonies such as Commencement and IUJ Honors Convocation will be mailed to the student and to the individual(s) listed on the student's record as parent or guardian. The student's invitation will be mailed either to the local address or student home address based on current enrollment status. The family invitation will be mailed to the parent or guardian address listed on the student's record, unless the student has filed a Student Directory Exclusion.

News releases listing the names of graduates/candidates for graduation and honor students will be sent to newspapers whose circulation includes the areas indicated by the zip codes as reflected on students' home addresses, unless the student has filed a Student Directory Exclusion.

Commencement and IUB Honors Convocation programs listing the names of graduates/candidates for graduation and honors students will be available to students and family members who attend Commencement and Founders Day ceremonies.

Withdrawal Grades

See index for references to further information.

Residence Halls

Housing applications are obtained by applying online at http://www.ipb.indiana.edu

Room and board payments may be paid by semester, or in eight [8] installments to the Office of the Bursar, Franklin Hall 011. If extenuating circumstances prevent a student from making payments as scheduled, the problem should be discussed with the Office of the Bursar prior to the deadline for payment.

Student Academic Center

9 a.m.-noon, 1-4 p.m.
http://sac.indiana.edu/
316 N. Jordan Ave.
(812) 855-7313

The Student Academic Center offers courses and programs that help students adapt to campus life, learn about campus resources, master study and test taking skills, and make the most out of the college experience. Students are encouraged to check out the SAC website or call us for information and help. See Special Course Listings in the publication for SAC courses.

Career Development Center and Arts & Sciences Career Services

The Career Development Center and Arts & Sciences Career Services helps students find and apply for summer, temporary, part-time and full-time jobs and internships, both on and off campus, work-study and non work-study. Our services include:

- Drop-in career advising [no appointment necessary]
- Resume and cover letter assistance
- Career advising
- Job and career fairs

Student Financial Assistance

The Office of Student Financial Assistance, Franklin Hall 208, processes scholarships, grants, and loans for students attending the Bloomington campus. Any of these sources of financial assistance must be first used to pay instructional fees, housing costs, and other University charges at the time a student completes the registration process.

Limited financial assistance is available for summer sessions. To qualify for these funds, students must be enrolled in the appropriate number of credit hours. Additional information regarding the number of credit hours needed to qualify for financial aid may be obtained by visiting the Web at www.indiana.edu/~sfa. Students completing less than the requisite credit hours may have their financial aid reduced or cancelled for subsequent enrollment periods.

The 2009-2010 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), and any required supplemental forms, must be submitted by March 1 in order to determine financial aid eligibility. Additional information regarding application deadlines can be obtained by visiting the Web at www.indiana.edu/~sfa.

Recipients who receive federal financial aid are expected to attend classes and maintain regular progress towards their degree. Both class attendance and progress are periodically monitored.

General information on the financial assistance available to students enrolled may be obtained by visiting the web at www.indiana.edu/~sfa. Students with specific questions concerning financial aid eligibility may contact the office in Franklin Hall, Room 208, or visit www.onestart.iu.edu to check on the status of specific awards.

IU Health Center

600 North Jordan across from the Main Library, 812-855-4011; www.indiana.edu/~health. Hours: 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday-Friday. Special hours for holidays and semester break. Please call to verify hours. After hours call service available during major semesters. Visit the Health Center’s website for times this service is available.

Services
The Health Center offers a variety of services provided by professionals with specialized training and experience in college student health care. The Health Center has earned full accreditation by the Accreditation Association of Ambulatory Health Care, a nationally-known accreditation and review organization.

Medical care is provided for many types of health concerns. Scheduled appointments are available [855-7688] as is a walk-in clinic when a health problem is urgent or when an appointment is not available. Also available: women’s health services (gynecology), lab tests, x-rays, allergy shots, immunizations, physical therapy, an optometry (eye) clinic, and a pharmacy which accepts prescriptions from hometown physicians as well as Bloomington physicians.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CaPS), located on the 4th floor of the Health Center [855-5711], is available for a variety of adjustment problems. Individual, couples, and group therapy is provided by psychologists and social workers; psychiatric consultation is also available.

The Sexual Assault Crisis Service (SACS) provides crisis intervention and counseling to victims of sexual assault and their family and friends [general info 855-5711; crisis line 855-8900]. The service is free and available to all members of the University community. Counselors are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Health and Wellness Education offers health information to all members of the university. Health information is available via the world wide web, (www.indiana.edu/~health) via brochures, books, and video. Health educators provide information on a variety of health topics including nutrition, fitness, exercise, sexuality, stress management, weight reduction, and smoking cessation. Massage therapy is also available by appointment.

Charges
Payment for services may be made by cash, check, MasterCard, Visa, or Discover, or enrolled students may transfer charges directly to the Bursar’s Office. Although we do not accept insurance, the cashier will provide a special computerized receipt for you to submit to your insurance company.

Students currently enrolled in more than 3 credits receive reduced rates because they pay a mandatory Health Fee assessed by the Bursar. You are entitled to reduced rates during the semester for which you have paid the health fee. Students who are enrolled in 3 credits or fewer, spouses of students, and dependents of students do not receive reduced charges because they do not pay the Health Fee.

If you wish to qualify for reduced charges, and are enrolled in 3 or fewer credits, you may opt to pay the Health Fee at the Health Center within 2 weeks of the start of each semester.

For further information about the IU Health Center, call 812-855-4011 or visit our web page at www.indiana.edu/~health.

Summer Sessions

Students can make an early decision about attending summer school. Each October, a preliminary list of academic courses that are scheduled for the following summer is published. This preliminary course listing is made available at http://summer.indiana.edu/

Other publications available to students and the public include a booklet on summer workshops and institutes (published in March) and summer activities both on and off campus (published in May).

IU Bloomington Continuing Studies

Adult Student Resources (ASR)

Adult Student Resources in Maxwell Hall, Room 020 provides support and referral for adults beginning or returning to college. ASR is a source of information and access to IU Bloomington programs for local adults. Free workshops on study skills, test-taking, and other topics of interest to adult students are offered, in addition to online resources. ASR welcomes adults enrolled in all majors. For more information, visit our web site at continue.indiana.edu.
